Singletons Plan Dance

The Dearborn-Livonia Singletons will hold their fall membership dance Friday evening, Sept. 24, from 8 p.m. until 2 a.m. in the Continental Room of the Lincoln Inn, Southfield and Dix, Lincoln Park.

Present Musical

Four Observerland students will be taking part in Eastern Michigan University's presentation of "West Side Story" Oct. 15 through 17 and Oct. 20 through 22 in Quirk Auditorium.

required. There will be cocktails and dancing to the music of Bob Parpart's six-piece orchestra.

and dramatic arts, music and health, physical education and recreation are working together on the production, the 10th major Broadway musical to be presented by the players.

A long list of entertainers, including Gordon MacRae who was scheduled to begin performing on Thursday, has been canceled as a result of a fire that destroyed Lofy's supper club early Sunday morning.

Located in Plymouth Township, the elegant Pavilion Room at Lofy's was getting established as a metropolitan supper club with name talent when the fire destroyed, at least temporarily, that goal.

Along with MacRae's performance, the fire ended plans for performances by Edie Adams Oct. 15 to 23, Vic Damone Nov. 4 to 12 and Phyllis Diller Nov. 18 to 27.
