THE GARTER SNAPPERS plus Five will present a variety show with a sing-along and music for dancing at 8:15 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 25, in West Bloomfield High School on Orchard Lake Road. The show, which is open to the public, is sponsored by the League of Women Voters.

Casting Call

Auditions are now being held for the Schoolcraft College Area Stage Band. Persons interested in joining the ensemble should contact Richard Saunders, director of fine arts, Schoolcraft College, 18600 Haggerty, Livonia.

First formed last January, the band is composed not only of students, but also many adults from the community and high school students. The group was well received at two concerts in May.

Rehearsals have been scheduled in Room F310 of the Forum Building on the campus each Thursday evening from 7:30 to 9:30. The first will be Thursday evening (Sept. 23). A registration fee of $20 for the program is payable at the first rehearsal.

'Hired Hand' Stars Fonda

"The Hired Hand" starring Peter Fonda and Warren Oates, opened today (Wednesday) at the La Parisien and Towne theatres.

The film, which was produced by William Hayward and Fonda, concerns the attempt by two "saddle-trampers" to avenge the death of their friend.

Channel 56 TV Plans Open House Sept. 24

DETROIT Channel 56, non-commercial television in Detroit, will open its doors for a public open house Friday, Sept. 24, from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The open house is part of a three-day dedication of Channel 56's new Public Broadcasting Center, marking the move of the public television station to the city of Detroit.

All are invited to visit the Channel 56 offices and studio at 7441 Second Boulevard at Bethune to see how a television station works. In addition to viewing the technical side of television, visitors may also have a chance to see an actual television program in production, learn about public television and meet Channel 56 staff and on-air personalities.
