

Girls Explore Mountain

FARMINGTON
Several Farmington area high school girls spent two weeks along with 26 southern Oakland County senior girl scouts exploring the Big Horn Mountains of Wyoming this summer.

Lori Bikson, 29645 High- meadow; Debra DeCourcy, 32770 Briarcrest Knoll; Debbie Drushel, 31905 Nottingham; Katie Murphy, 36024 Woodbrook; Laura Strom, of 32040 Farmersville; Christa Tesner, 26567 Middle Belt; and Gay Adams of 26319 Dundalk, all of Farmington, took a two-week bus trip to the western state.

Barb Matthews, 7104 Springridge; Janice Madge, 7045 Ten Hill; and Denise Ulrich, of 7625 Elnorborough, all of Birmingham, also enjoyed the excursion. The girls attend either North Farmington or Harrison High Schools in Farmington.

For one week they camped, rode horseback, explored the wild setting of Wyoming and even participated in archaeological diggings on the Girl Scout camp grounds. En route they toured Yellowstone National Park. Debbie Drushel was chosen to participate in the girl scouts counselor-in-training course at Camp Narris, Ortonville, Mich. This senior scout program provides on-the-scene observation, practice and training in the skills needed to work with children in a camp setting.

Anyone interested in learning more about senior scouting should contact Mrs. Joseph McCarthy or Mrs. Hector McNeill.

VICTORY FEAST — One section of a giant pizza leaves the oven for a "victory feast" planned for the Little Caesar baseball team which finished in the finals of the Connie Mack league playoffs. Their sponsors designed and baked what is claimed to be the world's largest pizza, a pie nine by six feet. The section being
