Bad Scene Is Cleaned

EDITOR:

We were taking our walk in the Farmington Park last evening as usual. We had noticed on many occasions the litter by the steps leading to Farmington Junior High. As we approached the steps last night, however, it was apparent that a lot of cleaning had been done.

It turned out several young men nearby had spent Labor Day working to help clean up what had been a "bad scene."

Yes, they had long hair.

They were also polite and had done a real good job - even to the extent of removing several 55-gallon drums which were filled with trash they had picked up.

We are ashamed we neglected to get their names, but they are to be commended for a job well done. Their parents and the community can be proud of these young adults.

Last week Friday evening Grace and Vernon Fisher gave a cocktail party to welcome their new next door neighbors, the Romeos.

Tony and Marge Romeo have moved from Livonia into the former Zahniser home at 2845 Wellington. They have four children but their oldest daughter, Lee, is now married and living in Livonia. Their son, Ed, met at the cocktail party. He is attending Harrison High School. They also have two daughters at home with them, Terry and Ann.

A very disturbing incident the previous day made us doubly glad Tony and Marge were able to attend this party for them.

I had just left the house to drive to the office, turned west on Wellington, she lost control of the car for a reason I still do not know, and went off the road. How thankful we are that not one of those fine young people had more than scratches and bruises: They all were able to get out of the car themselves.

Ann Perry also had heard the crash and called the police, but all four were safely on their way back to Terry's home before the police arrived. The Romeos are a delightful family and Wood Creek extends an extra warm welcome to them.

THEN ON Saturday came the annual Wood Creek summer picnic. This year it was held at the Agnello's.

It is a steep hill behind their house down to the level area, but they got tables set up with a canvas over part of them in case of the threatened rain, and Dick Carlson's light truck found a way to drive down with his wonderful beef. One hundred and twenty-three came to enjoy a very wonderful evening of warmth and cheer with their fellow Wood Creekers.

Tuesday of this week the Womens Association meeting was held in the home of Joyce White, with Helen O'Brien and Nancy Brassett the co-hostesses who made the delicious dessert. There were at least 25 who came. It was particularly nice to welcome several newcomers whom I will welcome in detail in the next paragraphs.

Following dessert, Marian Laft spoke of the tour of historical homes in Franklin planned for Oct. 6 which should be most interesting. Marian is also arranging to have Maurice salad, rolls, and a sweet, to be served in the Franklin Community Church on that date for all who wish it.

Tickets for this luncheon will be available in several places.

Ruth Gray, our program chairman, then spoke of some very interesting plans she has for future meetings. For instance, next month we will meet at the home of our treasurer, Jerry Kigar, and the speaker will come from Interior Arts in Farmington. Of course we sewed cancer pads.
