Coming To The CIVIC Theatre

Based on Phyllis Bottoms' powerful novel of two lovers and a family caught in the coils of a hate which started the world, "The Moral Storm" opens Friday for two days on the Civic Theatre screen as one of the most timely and gripping motion pictures ever to reach the screen. Margaret Sulavan, James Stewart, Robert Young and Frank Morgan at the stellar names topping the large cast, with other important roles filled by Robert Stack, Bontia Granville, Irene Rich, William T. Orr, Maria Ouspenskaya, and Gene Reynolds, under the direction of Frank Borzage, creator of many of the screen's greatest hits. Accompanying "The Moral Storm" will be "Shooting High" Riding, shooting, and singing together, Jane Withers and Gene Autry dash with a whoop and a holler through many an exciting adventure in this movie, a fast-moving action romance of the western range.

On Sunday and Monday the Civic will present a double feature program consisting of "Young Tom Edison" and "Flight Angels." Giving Mickey Rooney his first portrayal of a real life character, a role in which the boy star has an opportunity to prove that he is a genuine actor, "Young Tom Edison" presents Rooney with the juvenile player, "Flight Angels," film of the skyways with a brand new twist, tells the story of air hostesses, a theme which has never before been shown on the screen. It's power-driven drama from start to finish.

Moving in on Tuesday and Wednesday are two excellent pictures, "I Love You Again" and "Torrid Zone." Laughs, long and hearty, will be the order of the day when "I Love You Again," co-starring William Powell and Myrna Loy is shown. Newsies' careers of these two favorites have they appeared in a more hilarious film. From beginning to end, the picture piles laugh upon laugh in a series of the maddest situations ever conceived by a group of authors. James Cagney, Ann Sheridan and Pat O'Brien are the triple-threat star trio heading the cast of "Torrid Zone." The picture is an exciting comedy drama, set against the exotic tropical background of the South American banana country.

WEST POINT PARK

Mr. and Mrs. Max Bergin and daughter Sharon of Howell were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Addis.

The Ladies' Community Club will hold its next meeting Wednesday, October 2, at the P. T. hall. All members are requested to be present, as election of officers will take place. Lunch served at one o'clock.

Mrs. Lionel Coffin of Plymouth was the Sunday dinner guest of Mrs. Elmer Heighman. Russell Ault was again the unfortunate victim of pranksters Friday night. Posts bounding his pasture field were deliberately pulled down to the ground as an electric fence deliberately put out of commission. A neighbor suffered similarly. Cattle were thus left to wander at will over the community.

This is only one of the milder depredations committed by a couple of mischievous individuals during the last few months. Residents in the section affected are seeking the aid of state troopers.

The Sunshine Sisters are sponsoring a pot-luck luncheon and get-together, including a devotional service, in honor of the eighty-third birthday of Mrs. Charlotte Wolfe, the best-known grandmother in the community, in the P. T. A. hall on Seven-Mile road on Friday afternoon. Lunch will be served at 12:30. Any who cannot be present for the meal may come in later if they wish. All grandmothers in the community and any others who desire to take part in the celebration will be welcome to join in the gesture of courtesy toward Grandma Wolfe.

The Wonder Book Club, composed of young people from the Folger subdivision, and which meet on Monday nights during the summer season, has in order not to interfere with home study, changed its meeting time back to Friday again. It will hold its meeting this week at the home of Jack Tallman. This will be only for young people in their teens.

Rev. Gordon Cameron, when he came out from Bible School Sunday afternoon, was accompanied by his second son, Avery, and Mrs. Avery Cameron. It is hoped that the young couple, who are a recent bride and groom, will visit us again and often.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Slevin and children and Mrs. Ruth Phillips of Untonstown, Ohio, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson. Boys and girls under twelve who have been attending the sessions of the Wonder Book Club will from now on have their own group and meet separately. They are meeting this coming Saturday at 3 p. m. at the home of Miss Lora Ault. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Eggberger are moving from Mayfield avenue to their new home on Hubbard avenue. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald and sons have established themselves in the house vacated by the Eggbergers. Mr. Mansfield, formerly of West Point Park and well known here, but for the time being a resident in Farmington, has been quite ill with a heart ailment the past ten days. As soon as he is sufficiently recovered, he and Mrs. Mansfield plan to accompany a Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fredericks and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tam to Florida, where all expect to locate permanently. At the home of her mother, Mrs. Marjorie Addis, Mrs. Harold McVicar was hostess at a stork shower Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Norbert Schmidt. About 25 guests were in attendance, and a large number of beautiful gifts were showered upon the honor guest. Dainty refreshments were served. In honor of Mrs. Rose Carroll of Mayfield avenue, Mrs. Mix, also of Mayfield avenue, gave a well-appointed stork shower Thursday afternoon. Guests were ladies from the neighborhood. Miss Shirley Zwalen was the Sunday dinner guest of Miss Olive Grimwade of Farmington. Miss Helen Ruth Ault, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault has been ill for several days with a serious throat infection. Donald Wolfe, youngest son of

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Wolfe, was on the sick list for a few days the past week. The young people of William McNair's room in Pierson School held a very enjoyable winter masquerade Thursday evening in the woods not far from the school. A number of former pupils now members of the freshman class in Farmington High School joined in the fun. A birthday celebration in honor of Miss Etta Barker was held at her home Saturday afternoon. Girls from Mrs. Wolfe's room in Pierson School were guests. The Civic Association will meet on Wednesday evening, October 2, in the P. T. A. hall.
