

Maureen describes her wedding gown as "the most dramatic I've ever seen. And I should know. I've modeled bridesmaids and bridal dresses for about five years. I even modeled one made out of gold lame, and mine is something I've never known before. It's sensational."

She refused to disclose the design or material, but did reveal that her wedding colors would be emerald green and bisque. "Green is a good winter color," she mused, "we plan to have a lot of greenery in the chapel for the ceremony."

A very sentimental part of the ceremony for Maureen will be her ring, a wedding band her dental-student fiance fashioned.

Maureen and Larry met through a friend at the annual Greek Town Festival in Detroit last summer and were engaged on New Year's Eve.

Maureen graduated from Southfield High School, attended the University of Michigan School of Design, and can best be described as versatile.

She is presently employed as an artist with a Detroit advertising agency. She does free lance photography. She teaches modeling part time for Federal Department Stores. She designs and makes most of her own clothes. She is a member of the Mademoiselle Magazine College Board for 1970-71. Of her own vast background in modeling, she says, "I prefer the other side of the lens."

Larry graduated from Ferndale High School and the University of Michigan. He is now a sophomore at the University of Detroit Dental School where he is a member and officer of Alpha Omega, a dental fraternity.

The couple will be married the day after final exams, December 18, and take advantage of the school's mid-semester break for a honeymoon in the Caribbean Islands.

As to Larry's school day of classes that run from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Maureen says, "With that plus at-home study I hardly ever see him."

Larry, too, is a photography buff, but strictly as a hobby. He plays baseball on a city league in the summer, enjoys tennis, and both water and snow skiing. Maureen chooses horseback riding as a favorite pastime, but with all of her outside activities, doesn't seem to be able to find the time anymore.

Maureen's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Katzman, of 27210 Devonshire, Southfield, and Larry's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ashman, of 24041 Rensselaar, in Oak Park.

Looking Forward To A Lifetime Together

Before the big day, Maureen and Larry do some pre-wedding shopping. Choosing an engagement ring, buying furniture and finding the right gown are just a few of the things that the couple have on their list. Their families are also involved in the busy preparations.
