

A romantic tradition. Bernadette Noethen, Arlene's maid of honor, is admired by Mrs. Linda Rockman, of Ingrid's, as she considers this gown with a purple velvet A-line skirt, and lavender chiffon bodice with ruffled bib, typical of the lovely gowns found in Ingrid's wide selection.

Ingrid's Bridal Salon

2875 Woodward
Berkley Li 8-0010

A gown and veil of true perfection. This is the vision of loveliness that Arlene donned at Boulevard Bridal. Arlene will be a truly lovely winter bride with her natural beauty and a gown such as this one from the wide selection of exclusive creations at this fine bridal salon.

Boulevard Bridal Salon

1095 S. Hunter Boulevard
Birmingham 642-2150

A Day to Remember . . .

Arlene, admiring the lovely floral arrangements at Redford Baptist Church, envisions how 46 years of wedding and floral experience can fulfill her dream.

McClure's is the oldest flower and gift shop under original ownership, in the northwest section of Detroit.

Why not let McClure's help plan your shower and wedding arrangements — as simple or as elegant as you wish.

At your disposal are our college graduate designers.

All floral services including benches, large selection of candelabra and aisle runners.

McClure's Flowers and Gifts

21552 Grand River
near Six Mile
Detroit KE 1-0143, KE 1-0267

