Also all those men who have registered for training service under the draft law are to be guests at the services. The program will open with an invocation followed by "America" sung by the audience.

A round table discussion of the election formed the program here Wednesday night by members of the Exchange club. Each member, in answer to the topic "Personal Views and Comments on the Election," gave a short discussion. No outside speaker was engaged and the informal talk resembled the usual type of Exchange meeting.

There was a short discussion on the annual Goodfellows drive which the club sponsors in Farmington. Definite plans concerning the drive will be made at later meetings.

The program next Wednesday will be under the direction of Harry Hartz. Other members who will have charge of meetings within the next two months are Dr. Z. A. Aschenbrenner, Paul Park, John J. Schulte, Earl C. Grosvenor, Dr. Frank Weaver, and Leo Gamache.

High School Honor Roll For First Term Announced

A list of the names of Farmington high school students who earned at least a "B" average during the first six weeks' period has been released from the office of Edward Ayres, principal. As usual the girls took the lead in challenging up high marks, with 39 of them landing on the honor roll as against 12 boys.

Approximately 10 per cent of the high school students won a place

Draft Advisory Board Named

An advisory board to assist draft registrants in preparing draft questionnaires, claims of deferment and in other similar problems has been appointed for draft district No. 8, which has jurisdiction over Farmington Township and the City of Farmington.

Members of the board are Harvey L. Lodge, Donald F. Noble, Marion L. Johnson, William Hoot, Milford, and Harold Schneck, Keego Harbor.

Officials said the boards had a semi-official capacity and were not to be confused with appeal boards, which have not been appointed yet, nor draft board attorneys, who were appointed several weeks ago to advise on legal matters.

It was estimated that the last of the local boards would receive some time this week its copies of the "master list" of order numbers in the sequences in which individual registrants' serial numbers were drawn in the lottery. Once a board has its list, it can start mailing out the questionnaires which will develop the information determining the eligibility of the registrants for service. Registrants whose numbers were drawn earliest will get the first questionnaires.

Registrants have five days in which to answer and return the questionnaires but officials said they were confident classification would begin in many local boards almost immediately.

They reiterated predictions that the first call for 39,000 men would on the honor list. While this is not an exceptionally high percentage, it is considered good for the first term, when many students, particularly freshmen, are adjusting themselves to a new environment. The list of honor students follows:

Seniors
George Brykalek, Dean Coolman, Paulette Gamber, Laura Leghn, Patricia Lapham, Margaret Leach, Gordon Nelson, James Norton and Norma Washburn.

Juniors

Sophomores

Freshmen
Mary Aschenbrenner, Margaret Dwyer, Shirley Johnson, Edith Kargetta, Jack Hafendorfer, Audrey Lathrop, Dorothy Gustafson, Clifford Stelling, Rita Fisher, Marjorie White, Annalese Foster and Carl Hanson.

FARMINGTON O.E.S.

TO ELECT OFFICERS
Farmington Chapter No. 229, O.E.S. will hold their annual meeting and election of officers on Tuesday evening, November 12, at Masonic Temple. Plans will be made for the installation of new officers, which will take place on Tuesday, November 26. All members are urged to attend this meeting.

be filled largely by selective service volunteers, who prefer to take training immediately, rather than await the turn assigned to them by their number in the national lottery. If the predictions are fulfilled, compulsory service will be unnecessary to fill the first requisition, except perhaps in a few cases.

Holidays Are Coming Up—And Stores Are Prepared

Now that another election has passed into history and the bustle and excitement of election day has passed people are settling back to think of the winter season ahead, with its holidays, its vacation for the boys and girls at school, and its busy times for everybody.

Thanksgiving and Christmas mean a lot of extra shopping, but there's no need to tire yourself out by making trips out of town to do it. More than ever before the merchants of Farmington are ready to give you the very best of service and values in your holiday shopping.

Between now and the holidays the merchants will continue to feature outstanding opportunities for fall purchasing. For example, hunters will find they enjoy their hunting trip a lot more if they visit Cook's clothing store and take advantage of the offers on hunting tops there.

In the very near future Von Burg's jewelry store in Redford will hold its grand re-opening. The store has been completely remodeled. The low prices on lovely jewelry and watches at Von Burg's will please those who choose jewelry as the ideal gift.

Consignment Power year end sale is coming up and it's an event you won't want to miss. Prices are lowest ever and their special terms and allowances make this a great opportunity to buy and save on winter heaters, gas ranges, or gas refrigerators.

Civic Theatre Program
On Friday and Saturday the Civic Theatre will show a big double feature bill including "The Man Who Talked Too Much" with George Brent and Virginia Bruce, and "Village Bar" with Walter Pidgeon as Nick and Florence Rice. Also listed for showing Sunday and Monday is "Call a Messenger." Also listed for showing Sunday and Monday is the latest Nick Carter detective story, "The Red Hat" which features Walter Pidgeon as Nick and Florence Rice. A pair of his come to the Civic Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. They are "He Stayed For Breakfast" with Mervyn Douglas and Loreeta Young, and "The Man I Married" co-starring Joan Bennett and Francis Lederer. Feel any cold drafts about the house? You won't if you enjoy heat with a Duo-Therm oil heater. This heater is positively draft-proof. To get better acquainted with the Duo-Therm drop into Dickerson Hardware.

Pontiac Agency Here
The outstanding car on the road this year is Pontiac—both in looks and in performance. Now you can have a 1941 Pontiac demonstrated right here in Farmington. The Pontiac agency is handled by Ross L. Berry and it's located at 3372 Grand River, in connection with Layn's auto repair service.

Now that you can have good light in your home for reading costs only, there's no reason for punishing your eyes with bad light. A 150-watt bulb in a table lamp provides light for nearly three hours at a cost of one cent. To make sure you have good lighting, measure your light with a light meter. Phone your Detroit Edison office.

Whether it's a Thanksgiving dinner or any other dinner, the hit of the table will be hickory-smoked meat from Lakeside Products, Walpole Lake.

Care for the Car
Don't forget that your car needs protection in winter, too. Ignore it against winter cold by having it slushcleaned at Burnett's service station.

Hatton's Farmington Hardware prescribes the following treatment for dainty, worn floors: an effortless, no-rubbing application of Johnson's liquid wax. Hatton's now has a special offer of Johnson's product.

One of the most talked-about pictures of the year—"Strange Cargo"—comes to the Redford Theatre Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, with Clark Gable and Jeanette MacDonald in a brilliant cast. Also on the double feature program is "Charlie Chan at the Wax Museum."

Township Vote Sets New Record

In the heaviest vote in its history Farmington Township Tuesday went Republican in every office except one. The single exception was in the vote for governor in which Murray D. Van Wagoner received 945 votes of Gov. Dickinson's 897. The two precincts were sharply divided. Precinct One supported every Republican candidate while Precinct Two backed all Democratic candidates except three.

The largest single vote for any candidate was cast for Harry F. Kelly, who sought re-election as Secretary of State.

A total vote of 1960 was cast, 1148 in Precinct One and 812 in Precinct Two. As a result of the unusually heavy balloting the final results were not tabulated until nearly noon Wednesday, after the election boards had worked all night counting the votes. Those who worked on the boards include: Precinct One, Ernest Blanchard, Ward Eagle, Will Morris, Jay Burton, Mrs. Susie Seely, Mrs. Lettie McIntyre, and Jennie Lapham. Precinct Two, Harry Schaefer, Charles Helms, Roy Shaw, Mrs. Florence Bellins, Mrs. Isabel Menke, and Mrs. Alene White.

Garden Club Responsible For Landscaping

The great improvement on Grand River avenue, east of Farmington, is most noticeable, now that the landscaping is about completed. The Michigan State Highway Department has supervised the work, and has planted new trees on both sides of the highway.

The project was originally sponsored by the Farmington Garden Club, who later went to the Exchange Club and ultimately to the City Commission for support. The Highway Department furnished the trees and the city will take care of maintenance.

All residents of Farmington extend a vote to the Garden Club for their fine effort in stimulating interest in this improvement.

"Ghostly Fingers" will be directed by Grady McKay, instructor in salesmanship and public speaking. This will be the first mystery play the seniors have presented since McKay took over the direction four years ago.
