

AT THE REDFORD THEATER

One of the most unusual screen stories in recent times will make its appearance at the Redford Theater Friday when "Warner Bros." new film, "Knute Rockne—All American," opens. It is a film life story of one of America's greatest and wisest heroes—Knute Rockne. The picture traces Rockne's life from his early childhood in Norway to his tragic death in 1931. His life was full of excitement, despair, love and triumph. The film, with Pat O'Brien the smallest gesture. The brilliant supporting cast consists of Gale Page as Bonnie Knute's wife; Donald Crisp as Father Callahan, President of Notre Dame, and Ronald Reagan in the greatest role of his career, that of the renowned George Gipp. The players that portray the roles of the "Four Horsemen" have all seen action on the gridiron. They are: Kane Richmond as Elmer, Nick Bob Byrne as James Crowley, Nick Lukats as Harry Stuhldreher and William Marshall as Don Miller. Lloyd Bacon, whose forte is action films, has kept his record unmarred in the direction of this great film biography. Robert Buckner wrote the original screen play based upon the private papers and reports of Rockne's intimate associates and friends. "Knute Rockne—All American" is more than just a great life story; it is a guide to something we should never forget—the true spirit of America.
