Rededication

day and there will be special music by the choir and soloist. "It is the sincere hope and desire of The Salem Evangelical and Reformed church to have her friends and acquaintances join in this day with her. It will, of course, be understood that this article is in no way intended to be proselytic. Those of other churches are heartily invited to spend some part of the day with us; those who have not found a church home in our city are warmly welcomed by the church. After all, may we not be pleased to find a new electric organ, donated to the church by friend. The sounds of the organ will be released into the auditorium by means of a specially built sound room and an eight speaker arrangement and not by a common speaker as is generally the case. The Sunday School hall will be found to be very pleasant and homelike because it too has been rearranged and rededicated. In the basement of the church will be seen an enlarged kitchen and dining hall. The spirit of the church has been rebuilt and now reaches up in new architectural beauty. Provision has been made to, at some future time, place in the spirit, speakers to amplify the organ and chime. "As president of the church and chairman of the board, I wish to thank everyone who has in any way helped to foster this program. It is, indeed, an undertaking for the members to set out upon a program of this kind, but through and because of the love for the church and hearty co-operation the program will be carried through to final completion. $10,000 is being spent in this entire program, which means sacrifice to some, to others it means an opportunity, to do something which they consider most worth while. "As the Mayor of the city of Farmington, I am most happy to note the trend of advance in our community. Certainly it will be true, that in the next years new families are going to come in and if there are adequate and pleasant church and school facilities provided those new people, whom we like to have, will become established in the community much more readily and thoroughly."

F. J. Gilmeister, Pres. Evan. & Ref. Church
