Coming To The CIVIC Theatre

Jane Withers and Kent Taylor have the lead roles in "Girl From Avenue A," the movie which will be shown Friday and Saturday at the Civic Theatre. Also to be shown on these dates is "The Mummy's Hand." This latest venture into the realm of eerie entertainment is based on a legendary death curse, said to have been handed down by ancient Gods of Egypt, on all who attempt to defile the tombs of Egyptian royals. In recent years this legend has been given considerable credence by actual sinister fates which befall persons who tried to enter the tomb of King Tutankhamen.

Wed. Adventures. "The Mummy's Hand" traces the weird adventures of an expeditionary group searching for the tomb of an Egyptian princess. Dick Foran and Peggy Moran appear in the romantic leads, with Wallace Ford, Cecil Kellaway, Eduardo Cianelli, George Zucco, Tom Tyler and Charles Trowbridge appearing in chief supporting roles.

On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the comedy hit, "Road to Singapore" with Bob Hope and Bing Crosby comes to the Civic, accompanied by "Boys of the City."

When the "East Side Kids," now playing in "Boys of the City," try peaceful country life, they walk right into excitement, danger, and even murder.

Composed of Hollywood's toughest kids, the gang goes right to bat to clear their pal, Knuckles, of a murder charge, although in order to do this, they have to capture a dangerous killer. Among the kids are two well-known "Dead Enders," Bobby Jordan and Leo Gorcey.

The famous mystery thriller, "The Cat and the Canary" opens on Christmas Day at the Civic. In the leading roles are Paulette Goddard and Bob Hope. Also showing Wednesday and Thursday is "Rulers of the Sea."

Just a year more than a century ago, a little steamship ventured out of the port of London, bound for New York, the first ship to attempt the crossing of the treacherous North Atlantic under the power of steam alone.

The departure of that ship on its history-making voyage changed the maritime history of the world, and Frank Lloyd, recognizing the inherent drama of the event, has a great story behind that sailing, has produced in "Rulers of the Sea" a salty, vigorous, thrilling motion picture, telling the story of the courageous men and women who helped to bring the dream of the conquests of the Atlantic by steam to magnificent realization. Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Margaret Lockwood and Will Fyfe are co-starred. Paramount will present the picture.

FRANK L. CURTIS TAKES NEW JOB WITH 'PHONE CO.

FRANK L. CURTIS

Frank L. Curtis, an official of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company since 1914, has been named director of customer relations for the company, effective December 1. It was announced this week by George M. Welch, president.

The company's board of directors accepted his resignation as assistant secretary who might assume the new position. The board also combined the offices of assistant secretary and assistant treasurer and named James A. Berry to the dual responsibility. Berry has been assistant treasurer since 1928.

The company, Welch said, has found a growing public demand for information with respect to both technical and non-technical phases of telephone research and operations. This demand has been expressed in a volume of requests for apparatus demonstrations, displays of laboratory inventions, research lectures and the like. Curtis will assume charge of all such activities, as well as studies and analyses to gain for the company greater knowledge of the public's service wants.

Both Curtis and Berry are typical of telephone officials who have risen from the ranks. Curtis began telephone work in 1908 as clerk and stenographer in the offices of the secretary and treasurer of the Chicago Telephone Company, now the Illinois Bell. He became assistant secretary of the Central Group of Bell Companies in 1914. When the companies of the Central Group assumed their individual entities in 1920, he was made assistant secretary and assistant treasurer of the Michigan State Company, now the Michigan Bell. He relinquished the office of assistant treasurer in 1925.

Curtis has been secretary of Wolverine Chapter (Michigan) Telephone Pioneers of America, since 1931, and served as vice president of the national organization in 1938. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis and two daughters reside at 2232 LaSalle Gardens, south, Detroit.

Berry was employed in the offices of the auditor of receipts of the Chicago Telephone Company in 1912, served overseas during the World War, and became payroll supervisor for the Michigan State Company in 1920. Promoted to travelling auditor in 1925, he became supervisor of plant accounting methods in 1926 and assistant treasurer in 1928. Mr. Berry resides with his mother and daughter at 22342 Edson, in Dearborn.
