That had to be the turning point of the game, the Far-mington team felt. It probably would have been a different story had the Falcons moved in for a score at that point.

Another Parmington fumble and an intercepted pass helped West Bloomfield add to its huge lead.
Farmington managed 106 yards rushing and 58 in the air.

"showdown" in the Western Six League's football title chase comes off Friday when Churchill entertains Farmington Harrison. Many regard the two teams as the chief contenders for the crown and Churchill certainly proved it's ready for the title chase by downing longtime power Grosse Pointe South 14-6. The running of Nick Crom and the passing of Bob Blates, coupled with a stout defense, turned the trick for Churchill after South had capitalized on an early fumble recovery and moved in for a de lead in the FROM THAT point on Churchill donated the game as Crom turned in one of the most sparkling football efforts RU, Thurston Harriers
