AT THE REDFORD THEATER

That fascinating, tantalizing and dangerous Bette Davis, is back on the screen, following up her recent success "All This, And Heaven Too," with "The Letter." W. Somerset Maugham's greatest drama of a woman's heart. "The Letter" will have its local premiere showing at the Redford Theater on Friday.

It is becoming axiomatic that each of Bette Davis' performances should top the one which preceded it. It happened with "Dark Victory," "The Old Maid," "All This, And Heaven Too," and according to all advance reports, she rides to even greater glory in her newest vehicle, "The Letter."

"The Letter" tells a strange story. It tells of a beautiful and sheltered woman who murders a man, murders him in cold blood, pumping his body full of bullets until her husband's gun is empty. Why did she do it? Well, she tells her husband and her lawyer that she did it to defend her honor. But it seems there was a letter—a letter in her handwriting addressed to the murdered man, and now in possession of his widow, an Eurasian woman. If that letter were to show up in court, there could be no other verdict than "guilty." But down in the Chinese quarter of Singapore, there is a mysterious transaction under cover of night, and on the day of the trial, there is no sign of the letter.

These are the ingredients of the drama. Bette Davis is the central figure about which it revolves. Herbert Marshall is the husband, James Stephenson the lawyer who sacrifices his deep personal integrity to save the life of his friend's wife, Gale Sondergaard is the Eurasian woman. To tell more of the story would lessen its tre-

LEGION NEWS

Dr. Frank D. Adams of the "Internationalist Church," will lecture at 8:00 p. m. Thursday evening, February 13, under the auspices of the Groves-Walker Post and Auxiliary of the American Legion, in the High School Auditorium.

Dr. Adams was for ten years, minister of the Church of Our Father in Detroit, where he was also active in civic and community affairs. He was chairman of the Mayor's Unemployment Committee during the early critical years of the depression and directed the activities of that great organization. He left Detroit eight years ago to become pastor of Unity Universalist church in Oak Park, a wealthy residential suburb of Chicago, Illinois. During most of the ten years in Detroit and continuously since that time he has preached at regular intervals in the Universalist church in Farmington.

Dr. Adams is the author of several books, contributes to various magazines in various parts of the country. His biographical sketch has been in every issue of "Who's Who in America" since 1924.

For several years past, Dr. Adams has spent his summers traveling, and has visited nearly every country in Europe, having spent several weeks in Russia in 1935. In 1936 he toured the Mediterranean region, touching at every important point, washed by the sea, where fighting is now going on. Mexico and the Great West have been included in his recent itineraries. Last summer he spent eleven weeks making intensive study of South America, visiting all but three of the nations on that continent. Nearly all his travels have been as a member of seminar study groups.

Some very interesting facts will be disclosed by Dr. Adams in his lecture. Dr. Adams has secured his
