"LAND OF LIBERTY" TO BE SHOWN AT CIVIC THEATRE

As a special feature "Land of Liberty," edited by Cecile B. DeMille, will be shown at the Civic Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, October 1 and 2. This film is an industry cavalcade of American history, which was shown at the World's Fairs, is now being released by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, with profits assigned to war relief.

"Land of Liberty" tells the story of America by blending together carefully selected scenes from 112 features and shorts. The story begins with the founding of the nation and, after showing the growth of the country, ends with the promise of better living to be realized through science and enlightenment. The treatment of the subject, while not always agreeing with the usual history book account, is a powerful and moving recreation of a century and a half of American life. The film helps to emphasize the spirit of the nation based on the rights of individuals.
