COUNTY HEALTH

fective only as a cooperative enterprise. It is not the purpose of the county health department to duplicate the services of any organization, but to coordinate its work with theirs, so that there may be a unified effort.

"Oakland County's Health Department operates far below the standards set by the American Public Health Association which state that one nurse to each 5,000 persons is necessary for good public health work. There is now one nurse to each 23,500 persons in Oakland County. The average per health protection in the United States is about 50 cents per capita. In Oakland County it is about 25 cents, of which Oakland County itself pays only 15 cents; the remainder being federal and state funds."

"The costs of medical relief are many times greater than the funds spent for prevention. The spending of funds for the care of children that could have been prevented is merely 'bailing of the boat rather than caulking of the seams.'"

DETROIT THEATRE REOPENS WITH MYSTERY COMEDY

The Shubert-Lafayette Theatre will be reopened on Monday night, October 13th, under the management of the Messrs. Shubert of New York. The initial attraction will be the three act mystery comedy "Mr. and Mrs. North," dramatized by Owen Davis from the New Yorker magazine stories by Frances and Richard Lockridge. Mr. Alfred de Liagre, Jr., the Producer, is sending the original New York production to Detroit. The play enjoyed a run of many months at the Belasco Theatre on Broadway, remaining there from mid-winter to mid-summer.

It is the plan of the management of the Shubert-Lafayette Theatre to give Detroit the best theatrical fare available for engagements of several weeks.

Miss Anita Louise and Mr. Owen Davis, Jr. will be seen in the title roles of "Mr. and Mrs. North," both are playing truant from Hollywood. Miss Louise was most recently seen on the screen in "Harrison of Michigan" as Tom Harmon's leading woman, and Mr. Davis will be remembered for his characterization of Gus Dorris in the film "Route Hockney—All American." It will be a personal appearance of these two screen personalities and mark their return to the legitimate stage.

"Mr. and Mrs. North" comes with good reports on its quality as entertainment. It has been described as a merger of marital trivia and murder, which begins when two detectives of the dumb clinic species arrive at the ordinarily placid home of the Norths and involve the family in a crime mystery about which its members know nothing.

"Mr. and Mrs. North" will be presented at the Shubert-Lafayette nightly, including Sundays, with matinee performances on Wednesdays and Saturdays. The evening prices will be from 55c to $2.75 for all evenings, 55c to $1.65 for the Saturday matinees, and a special bargain price of from 55c to $1.10 for the Wednesday matinees. These prices include the Government tax.
