AT THE REDFORD THEATER*MOON OVER MIAMI

Miami, the glamour city of the South, with its swaying palms, gleaming white beaches, and incredibly blue lagoons, provides the background for the music, laughter and romance of the year's most elaborate Technicolor musical. Appropriately titled "Moon Over Miami," the 20th Century-Fox hit teams Don Ameche and Betty Grable for the second time.

The romantic duo of "Down Argentine Way" shares top-fare billing with Robert Cummings. Coming to the Redford Theater on Friday, "Moon Over Miami" is the gay tune-filled tale of two sisters, Betty Grable and Carole Landis, and their aunt, Charlotte Greenwood, who invest their $5,000 inheritance in the hope of rearing big dividends. It's an original sort of investment—a holiday fling complete with expensive clothes and a luxurious suite at a swanky Miami Beach hotel. The expected dividend—a millionaire husband for Betty.

Betty poses as an heiress, Carole as her secretary, and Charlotte as her personal maid. The threesome is made than successful when Betty looks not one, but two millionaires, Don Ameche and Robert Cummings—so she thinks. Don, the one she falls for, turns out to be a play-boy fortune hunter bent on the same mission. She then kids herself into believing that she loves Bob, a bonafide millionaire. But before they can marry, Don turns up—and the stage is set for a finale which is refreshingly different.

Not only does "Moon Over Miami" boast of a star-studded cast which includes Jack Haley and Colma Wright, Jr., but there are in addition eight hit tunes by master tunesmiths Leo Robin and Ralph Blane. You are sure to come out whistling one of these smash hits.

To top these off are spectacular dance routines directed by Hermes Pan, who also appears in the "Klugegarten Conga" number with Betty Grable. An unusual dance, "Semboite Legend" features Jack Cole, one of the nation's finest interpretive dancers, and his company of sixty. The Condos Brothers, the sensational New York specialty team, do a whirlwind routine with Betty.
