

WEST POINT PARK

Mrs. William Zwahlen

from a visit with friends in Tronton.

Mrs. John Weigle and nephew, Steve Cordin, are spending a few days with relatives in Detroit.

Mrs. Tanner, who lives in what was formerly the Ray property in the Folker subdivision is grieving the death of a sister in Detroit.

Miss Marion Bolyard is confined to her home with rheumatism.

Mrs. Viola Gilbert and children, Doris, Lucian, and Howard, spent the weekend with Mrs. Gilbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Panchow, of Detroit.

Mrs. George Welch has returned

There is More to Feeding A Turkey Than Watching it.

You have only a week left in which to prepare your fowl for market. Do it the sound, economical way with

LARRO TURKEY FINISHER

FARMINGTON MILLS

Mrs. Robert Fredericks, now residing in St. Petersburg, Florida, called upon several friends in Folker subdivision, this past week.

Ground was broken Saturday for the erection of a new home in the Powell property near the corner of Shady-side and Norfolk.

The Goodfellows held a very successful party in Livonia Town Hall Tuesday. The purpose was to raise funds to be used for the needy at Christmas.

Robert Kacy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kacy, owners of the West Point Park Greenhouse, bade good-by to his mother by making some clever maneuvers with a new type plane, a short distance above homes in the neighborhood, last Wednesday. Mr. Kacy, who is a flier for Uncle Sam, is being transferred to the South.

Mrs. Carl Borland and son Bernard, of Detroit, called on relatives in West Point Park, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ault, son Forrest and daughter, Lora Anne, attended a party given Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Borland in Detroit. The affair was in honor of Bernard Borland, who was home on furlough, previous to a transfer to the South for maneuvers. Mr. Borland is one of this year's draftees.

Miss Ina May Tallman was on the sick list, the early part of last week.

The Ladies' Community Club held its November meeting at the home of Mrs. Edwin Johnson last Wednesday. Thirteen women were present and indulged in a hearty potluck dinner near noon. During the business session it was decided to change the name of the club to the "Ladies' Community Circle," believing the new name would typify greater friendliness. The organization expects to do a considerable amount of handwork during the next few months. The next meeting will be held at the home of its president Mrs. Albert Owen on the first Wednesday in December and a pot luck dinner will again be in order.

Young people are being used in Rev. Cameron's Little Church. Miss Clara Roberts is the secretary and Miss Lora Anne Ault the treasurer of the Bible School, which meets at 10:30 a. m. Sunday.

At the Sunday evening service an original poem by Shirley Ault was read.

The local P.T.A. held a baked goods and white elephant sale in the P.T.A. Hall, Saturday afternoon. The proceeds are for the benefit of Pierson school children at Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hetchman will leave this week, Friday, for a two weeks' hunting trip, at their hunting lodge at Barton City.

Leigh Minx accompanied by Jack Welker left Wednesday of this week for a week's hunting at Mr. Minx's deer lodge near St.

Jacque.

A double surprise shower was given Tuesday afternoon. A bridal shower for Miss Lucille Carter and a stork shower for Mrs. Marie Torony both daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Carter, at the Carter home on Hubbard Road. Mrs. Jack Tallman was the hostess.

War Cuts Down Spice Supply

Drop in Eastern Commerce Blamed for Another 'Kitchen Shortage.'

WASHINGTON. — The nation's housewives, already asked to give up aluminum pots and pans in the interests of national defense, are faced with a new "kitchen shortage"—a shortage of tea, spices and other imported commodities.

Curtailment of shipping facilities plying between Mediterranean, African, Far Eastern ports and the United States has cut off entirely or depleted supplies of tea, nutmeg, cloves, capers, palm and vegetable oils, caraway, celery, mustard and poppy seeds, sage, cream of tartar, olive oil, dates, Arabian coffee for special blends, paprika and extracts used in vanilla and other liquid flavoring.

The Shepherd of the Hills

One of the most exciting stories in American fiction springs into vivid, powerful reality on the screen of the Redford Theater Friday, when Paramount's Technicolor film version of Harold Bell Wright's gripping novel, "The Shepherd of the Hills," will be presented to local audiences for the first time.

Wright's story has lost nothing in its transfer to the screen. Rather, the tale is more vivid, more compelling, as told by the camera. This is due, in large measure, to the superb acting ability of its stars, John Wayne, Betty Field and Harry Carey, and the brilliant supporting cast. Each seems perfectly cast; each gets to the very heart of the characters.

Henry Hathaway's direction is noticeable throughout the picture. In its great outdoor scenes with their colorful magnificence, in the unswerving path followed by the picture, right up to the shattering climax of the gun duel between John Wayne and Harry Carey, as father and son, and the romance between Wayne and Field.

Known to millions of readers, the story of "The Shepherd of the Hills" concerns the blood oath sworn by Young Matt, the impetuous, reckless young Ozark mountaineer, to search out and kill his own father, a man he has never seen, for putting a curse upon his life by abandoning his mother and driving her to an early grave. In love with a young splinter of a mountain maid he is not able to win her love completely because of the barrier set up by his restless unceasing urge to find his father and kill him. There has already been too much killing in the mountains brought on by moonshining activities and feuds.

In the picture, Wayne is Young Matt; Betty Field, Sammy Lane, the girl who will not love him until he has forgotten all his blood oath, and Harry Carey, the man who returns to the mountains after an absence of twenty years, to find that his son is bent upon shooting him.

The superstitions of the hill folks, their belief in witchcraft, hexes, and "haints" are presented solemnly or with laugh-provoking merriment, as the occasion requires. The Technicolor camera has reproduced the scenic grandeur of the rugged Ozarks in all its splendor. But after all, Hathaway did direct that other grand Technicolor picture of a few years ago, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." "The Shepherd of the Hills" is a picture no moviegoer will want to miss.

LEARN TO BE A SPECIALIST IN AVIATION

FREE training worth $1500

AND REMEMBER—THE NAVY PAYS YOU WHILE YOU LEARN!

RIGHT NOW planes are rolling out of America's factories by the thousands. Aviation is America's fastest-growing industry. The opportunities for trained men, now and in the future, are almost unlimited. That's why the United States Navy's offer of FREE AVIATION MAINTENANCE TRAINING is so exceptional. Because in the Navy you may, if qualified, get the finest aviation training in the world absolutely without cost to you. And on top of it, you earn while you learn!

Variety of Aviation Jobs

There is a variety of jobs in Navy aviation. Some may become experts in Aviation Metal-smithing... specializing in welding, brazing, electroplating and the other crafts essential to the cutting and fitting of metal parts of planes. Others, as Aviation Machinist's Mates, operate, care for and repair aviation engines. While some become specialists as Aviation Radiomen. Think of the future now. Any branch of this training would fit you for important jobs in the years to come.

But aviation offers only one of the many opportunities for you in America's new two-ocean Navy. There are actually 45 skilled trades and vocations which the Navy may teach you if you are qualified. If you are interested in radio work, engineering, aerial photography, carpentry, pharmacy, welding, the Navy may train you to become an expert in your chosen field.

If you apply yourself, advancement and increases in pay will follow regularly. Before the end of your first enlistment you may be earning up to $126 a month—with your board, keep, and a complete outfit of clothing free! If, at the end of your term of service, you wish to get a job in civil aviation or other fields, your Navy training will be a tremendous asset to you.

LOOK WHAT THE U. S. NAVY AND NAVAL RESERVE OFFER YOU

FREE TRAINING worth $1500. 45 trades and vocations to choose from.

GOOD PAY with regular increases. You may earn up to $126 a month.

EACH YEAR you are entitled to a generous vacation period with full pay.

GOOD FOOD and plenty of it.

FREE CLOTHING. A complete outfit of clothing when you first enlist. (Over $100 worth.)

FREE MEDICAL CARE, regular dental attention.

FINEST SPORTS and entertainment.

TRAVEL, ADVENTURE, THRILLS — You can't beat the Navy for them!

BECOME AN OFFICER. Many can work for an appointment to the Naval Academy or the Annapolis of the Air at Pensacola.

FUTURE SUCCESS. It's easy for Navy trained men to get good-paying jobs in civil life.

RETIREMENT PAY for regular Navy men.

AVIATION METALSMITHS get the finest training in the world in the Navy

Employers the country over are eager to employ Navy-trained men.

Good fun, good food, good friends

The Navy is noted for its popular sports program. Every kind of sport from baseball to boxing and swimming is offered the man who enlists. On board ship, the latest moving pictures are shown free. Organized recreation, such as dramatics, singing and musical entertainment, goes to make the life of a Navy man the best fun in the world.

The food served in the Navy would do justice to your own mother's cooking. It's well prepared—and there's plenty of it.

Any man who wears the trim uniform of Uncle Sam's Navy is bound to be looked up to—for you've got to be good to get in the Navy!

Get this FREE BOOKLET

Mail coupon for your free copy of "Life in the U. S. Navy." 24 illustrated pages. Tells what pay, promotions, and vacations you can expect... how you can retire on a full income. Describes how you can learn any of 45 big-pay trades... how many may become officers. 27 scenes from Navy life showing sports and games you may play, exciting ports you may visit. Tells enlistment requirements and where to apply. If you are between 17 and 31 (no high school required), get this free book now. No obligation. Ask the Navy Editor of this paper for a copy. Or telephone him. Or mail him the coupon. You can paste it on a penny postal card.

WEAR THIS BADGE OF HONOR! If after reading the free booklet you decide to apply for a place in the Navy, you will receive this smart lapel-embroider. It is a badge of honor you will be proud to wear.

Tear out and take or send this coupon to the Navy Editor of this newspaper.

Without any obligation on my part whatsoever, please send me free booklet "Life in the Navy," giving full details about the opportunities for men in the Navy or Naval Reserve.

Name _____ Age _____

Address _____

Town _____ State _____

Are you considering joining a military service? WHY NOT CHOOSE THE NAVAL RESERVE!

Don't wait. Choose the Naval Reserve now. The Secretary of the Navy has announced: "All men now enlisting in the Naval Reserve will be retained on active Navy duty throughout the period of the national emergency, but they will be released to inactive duty as soon after the emergency as their services can be spared, regardless of the length of time remaining in their enlistment."

Remember—the regular Navy and Naval Reserve offer you the same travel, training, promotions, pay increases. Physical requirements in the Naval Reserve are more liberal. Find out all about the Naval Reserve. Send in the coupon now!

★ SERVE YOUR COUNTRY ★ BUILD YOUR FUTURE ★

AT THE REDFORD THEATER

The Shepherd of the Hills

One of the most exciting stories in American fiction springs into vivid, powerful reality on the screen of the Redford Theater Friday, when Paramount's Technicolor film version of Harold Bell Wright's gripping novel, "The Shepherd of the Hills," will be presented to local audiences for the first time.

Wright's story has lost nothing in its transfer to the screen. Rather, the tale is more vivid, more compelling, as told by the camera. This is due, in large measure, to the superb acting ability of its stars, John Wayne, Betty Field and Harry Carey, and the brilliant supporting cast. Each seems perfectly cast; each gets to the very heart of the characters.

Henry Hathaway's direction is noticeable throughout the picture. In its great outdoor scenes with their colorful magnificence, in the unswerving path followed by the picture, right up to the shattering climax of the gun duel between John Wayne and Harry Carey, as father and son, and the romance between Wayne and Field.

Known to millions of readers, the story of "The Shepherd of the Hills" concerns the blood oath sworn by Young Matt, the impetuous, reckless young Ozark mountaineer, to search out and kill his own father, a man he has never seen, for putting a curse upon his life by abandoning his mother and driving her to an early grave. In love with a young splinter of a mountain maid he is not able to win her love completely because of the barrier set up by his restless unceasing urge to find his father and kill him. There has already been too much killing in the mountains brought on by moonshining activities and feuds.

In the picture, Wayne is Young Matt; Betty Field, Sammy Lane, the girl who will not love him until he has forgotten all his blood oath, and Harry Carey, the man who returns to the mountains after an absence of twenty years, to find that his son is bent upon shooting him.

The superstitions of the hill folks, their belief in witchcraft, hexes, and "haints" are presented solemnly or with laugh-provoking merriment, as the occasion requires. The Technicolor camera has reproduced the scenic grandeur of the rugged Ozarks in all its splendor. But after all, Hathaway did direct that other grand Technicolor picture of a few years ago, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." "The Shepherd of the Hills" is a picture no moviegoer will want to miss.

LOCALS

Mrs. Norman Barrons spent Wednesday last week with her mother-in-law, Mrs. H. A. Barrons, at the Thompson Home in Detroit.

Miss Lorna Bell of Detroit was a Sunday dinner guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Alexander and family spent Sunday at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Knapp of Lapeer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ault entertained at dinner Sunday, in addition to the members of their family, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Ward of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Westfall are receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby daughter born Monday night at Pontiac General Hospital. She weighed six and a half pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Tyler and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Barrons were guests Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Strauch in Detroit.

Mrs. Emily Maas entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Collins of Detroit. George Engstrom and Fred Grunts of Detroit were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Adams left this week for Colton, California, where they will spend the winter with the former's sister, Mrs. Addie McDougle.

The American Legion Auxiliary will give a card party at the Legion Hall on November 23. Mrs. Beatrice Carpenter and Mrs. Jean Muehler are in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Payne and family and the former's mother, Mrs. Byrd Payne of Tazewell, Tennessee were recent weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Labadie.

Miss Genevieve Greene, Mrs. Ruth Mansfield, Mrs. Viola Smith, Mrs. Howard Otis, and Miss Marie Wallace attended a shower for Margaret Bryan Edwards Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Thelma Collins in Pontiac.

Julia Evans spent last weekend in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hewitt and family of Walled Lake and Mrs. B. H. Fawcett and daughter Alice Ann were Sunday afternoon callers at the Gorman Craig home in East Detroit.

Misses Anna and Gertrude Richardson entertained Sunday at dinner. Mrs. Gladys Chamberlain, Miss Maude Kent, and Mrs. Libby Sherman.

Mrs. C. L. Hunt who underwent an operation Wednesday morning at Pontiac General Hospital is recovering nicely.

Mrs. Mae West was hostess at a luncheon and bridge party Monday. Those present were Mrs. Grace Adams, Mrs. Marian Nelson, Mrs. Gertrude Webster, Mrs. Hattie DeVriendt, Mrs. Lillian Barrons, and Mrs. Homer Eisenlord.

The American Legion and the Auxiliary held an Armistice Day cooperative dinner Tuesday night in the Legion Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Durham plan to spend the weekend at their cottage at Atlanta and hunt for deer. They will have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nelson and Mervin and John Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thayer and daughter Ethel of Detroit spent Sunday with Miss Anna Thayer and James Eastman.

Mrs. George Davis attended a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Irene Campbell of Detroit Wednesday last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Daubein of Ferndale were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heiskanen. Mrs. Manley Newman entertained the Golden Rule Circle of the Methodist Church at luncheon at 1 p. m. Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cotter spent Wednesday in Detroit on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tussing of Toledo were dinner guests Sunday of the latter's sister, Mrs. Mark Dalnes and family.

Buy in Farmington !!

• Easy ON THE EYES

try a "PIN-TO-WALL" LAMP for reading in bed

Prop yourself up with pillows and enjoy a good book! Be sure you have proper light for safe seeing... use a pin-to-wall lamp with a 100-watt bulb. (We do not sell these lamps. See them in many attractive styles at your dealer's.) The Detroit Edison Company.