Pontiac Seniors To Present Annual Drama

The annual senior high school drama, given by Pontiac High School seniors will be presented Thursday and Friday, December 4 and 5, at 8:15 p. m. in the Pontiac Senior High School Auditorium. The drama this year is "The Servant in the House" by Charles Kennedy.

There is no extra charge for reserved seats.

CIVIC THEATRE WILL SHOW HARMON FILM

"Tillie The Toller" with Kay Harrie and William Tracy, and "Frightened Lady" with Helen Hayes will be the double bill at the Civic Theatre on Friday and Saturday, November 21 and 22.

"Tillie The Toller" concerns the trials and tribulations of a stenographer. Mac, played by William Tracy, secures Tillie a job with his company, Simkins & Co., of which he is head clerk. When Mr. Simkins leaves town on business, Tillie sells Mac on the idea of showing their models—with Tillie acting as a model—at a style show. Simkins on his return goes into a rage when he sees the bills for the show, but his rage turns to elation when his models win all the laurels. He makes Mac general manager and gives Tillie a raise. There will also be a cartoon and serial.

On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, November 23, 24 and 25, Tom Harmon will be starred in "Harmon of Michigan," with Anita Louise and Forest Evashevski. Tommy Harmon, Michigan's greatest football star, graduates and instead of accepting a professional spot at a fancy figure, becomes an assistant coach at a small college. He settled in the small town with his bride. But Tommy doesn't get along with the new head coach and resigns. He takes a pro job. An old beloved coach takes an interest in Tommy and makes him his assistant at Regvere. The head coach is ill most of the season, and Tommy, given most of the credit for the showing of the school, is hired as head coach of Wheelock, Regvere's traditional rival. He adopts the dangerous wedge play which results in the injury of a player. He resigns when everyone turns against him, but his old mentor sticks by him and the two move on to a small Pacific college as coach and assistant.

The companion picture is "Out of the Fog" with John Garfield and Ida Lupino. A cartoon is also scheduled to be shown.

Wednesday and Thursday, November 26 and 27, are Constance Bennett Nights and each lady will receive a radiant rouge, valued at 50c, free with her admission ticket. The double bill includes "Bowery Blitzkrieg" with the East Side Kids and Olson and Johnson in "Al Over Town." A defense reel, "The Bomber" will also be shown.
