

TUBERCULOSIS DRIVE TO BEGIN NOVEMBER 24

The 1941 tuberculosis Christmas seal which will be placed on sale throughout the country on Nov. 24 features a lighthouse. Against the blue winter sky which forms the background of the design the double-headed cross in red is spotlighted by the lighthouse beacon. Stevan Dohanos a native of Lorain, Ohio, a well-known muralist and illustrator is the artist of this year's seal.

Out of his own experience he conceived the theme of the lighthouse as the symbol of the tuberculosis work. For it was soon after he had begun to gain recognition that he discovered he had tuberculosis. He had just been asked to join an art studio in New York and was preparing to move there from Ohio.

Mr. Dohanos said that the tempo-

U.S. Marines by Krez

COUNTY DEFENSE COUNCIL TELLS OF O.P.M. TOUR

To make sure that no qualified manufacturer—no matter where he is—misses an opportunity to get a defense contract for lack of information, officers of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, and the Office of Production Management will tour Michigan November 22-24, it was announced today by the Chairman of the Oakland County Council of Defense. The officers will travel in a special train painted red, white and blue.

The special will carry exhibits consisting of examples of defense equipment and parts needed by the services to give prospective manufacturers a clear idea as to the types of articles needed. These will be supplemented by blueprints and specifications.

Plans for the tour are being made by the Contract Distribution Division of the OPM which has division offices in Detroit and in Chicago. Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner, and Lieut. Col. Harold A. Varnum, Administrator of the Michigan Council of Defense, are coordinating the plans for the Michigan tour which is part of the itinerary of a train which left Washington November 10 to be on the road a little more than a month. Two other trains left at the same time, one to tour the East and the other the West.

The Midwestern Train will be in Toledo on Friday, November 21, in Lansing Saturday, November 22, and in Muskegon Monday, November 24. From Muskegon it will go to South Bend, Indiana, on Tuesday, November 25. It is expected that these four stops in and near Michigan will give all manufacturers in the Lower Peninsula an opportunity to inspect the visit.

Admission to the train will be by invitation only because the volume of work to be carried on will make it impossible to admit the public. The Detroit Office of the Contract Distribution Division is sending invitations to manufacturers who have already indicated interest in defense work. Others interested will receive invitations upon application to Governor Van Wagoner, the Michigan Council of Defense or district offices of the Contract Distribution Division, supplying detail information regarding machine tools and other equipment of their factories.

Officials aboard the train will endeavor to determine what defense articles manufacturers are capable of producing, and guide those with suitable equipment either to defense contractors who have work to let, or to the proper Gov-

COUNTY RED CROSS TO CONDUCT FIRST AID COURSE

Preparation for home defense, both on the civilian and industrial fronts is resulting in an increase of more than 50 percent nationwide in the number of persons trained in Red Cross first aid. An intensive battle is being waged against the toll of deaths and injuries from industrial, highway and home accidents.

Advanced instruction in approved American Red Cross first aid methods will be given to persons anxious to qualify as first aid instructors in first aid in a five day course at the Birmingham Community House beginning November 24. It has been announced. This course is open only to individuals who have standard and advanced first aid, and who have completed the latter course within eight weeks before enrolling in the lay instructor course.

An advanced first aid course is now in progress in Birmingham and is attended by representatives from schools, boy scouts, girl scouts, Detroit Edison employees, visiting nurse associations, Pontiac General Hospital, fire departments and industry.

During the past year the Oakland County chapter of the Red Cross has sponsored 31 classes in first aid and has 17 now in progress. Nine instructors and three physicians have had charge of the classes. Dr. E. E. Gidney is chairman of the first aid project and is assisted by the following committee: Mrs. C. T. Van Dusen, Ralph Waterman and Dr. Arthur Wentz of Birmingham; Mrs. Earle Kneale of Pontiac and Mrs. E. M. Gladden of Pleasant Ridge.

ernment procurement offices. In some instances the train staff will initiate negotiations which, carried through at regular field offices, will result in contracts.

Services represented on the trains will include Army Air Corps, Ordnance Department, Quartermaster Corps, Signal Corps, Corps of Engineers, Chemical Warfare and Medical Corps, various branches of the Navy, and the Maritime Commission.

Each train will have about 16 Army officers, nine representatives of the Navy and Maritime Commission, and eight representatives of the OPM. This personnel will be augmented by local representatives of the defense industry and in the districts through which the train passes so that the train staff will always include officials familiar with local conditions.

The train will consist of six cars equipped with defense "samples" and conference tables, and two cars providing living quarters. Definite hours will be assigned to the visiting manufacturers to avoid congestion.

LOCALS

Mrs. Homer Eisenlord and Homer Jr. spent the weekend where Homer joined his father in hunting deer.

Miss Frances Erickson of Lansing, a teacher in Farmington last year, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. George Checketts.

The Thomas J. Brennan family plan to spend their holiday with Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Kells of Grosse Pointe.

The Rev. and Mrs. M. T. Seeley of Marlette will entertain their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Carrell and son David on Thanksgiving Day.

C. V. Bell, Fred Schaepeter, and Edward Thayer have gone to Covington in the Upper Peninsula to hunt deer. They plan to be gone about two weeks.

LOCALS

Mrs. T. H. McGee spent the weekend in Saginaw.

Miss Ruth Bacon spent the weekend at her home in Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. James Layn were in Lansing Friday night for dinner.

Fred Maas has been confined to his bed at his home for the past week with pneumonia. He is improving.

William Johnston of Vancouver, British Columbia was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCracken.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lamb entertained Mr. and Mrs. Louis White and daughter Sharon on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lapham plan to have as their guests for the holiday their children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Lapham and child, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. John Lapham, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lapham and son.

Mrs. Bill Williams of Grand Rapids spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. James Layn.

Mrs. Florence Bachelor is again confined to her bed and is under a doctor's care.

Perry Lamb of Colorado who was called here by the death of his brother Frank Lamb, visited friends in Ann Arbor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Johnson are planning a family dinner party for Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hurkert expect to be guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hurkert in Detroit for the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Johnson will celebrate Thanksgiving with the former's brother and sister near Detroit.

Mrs. Max Hulett plans to leave this week for Seattle, Washington, where she will visit her son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hulett.

George Lamb who has been here all fall left Wednesday for his home in California.

Dr. F. D. Adams of Oak Park, Illinois will speak at the Universal Church on Thursday, November 27, at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Sayre Harger who has been visiting relatives in California returned home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Daines and family expect to spend Thanksgiving Day with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Daines.

Mrs. Joseph DeVries, Mrs. M. Catherman and Mrs. Fred Schaeper attended the wedding of Gloria Morgan and Hildreth Jones at the Methodist Church in Redford Saturday afternoon.

Max Hulett and son John have gone to Cass Creek Ranch on a deer hunting trip. They were accompanied by Bud Aulen.

Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Hamilton will be Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hartz and son of Day City Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hartz and son Leaton, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hartz and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hartz of Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gault plan to spend the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gotts.

H. E. Griffin has gone deer hunting to Atlanta for several days.

Mrs. Walter Coon entertained at a luncheon Saturday noon in honor of her mother Mrs. Frank Bradley. Guests were from out of town.

Miss Louise Gidley, of Detroit will be among other guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Cotten on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bade expect to spend the holiday with their daughter Mrs. M. I. McGregor and family of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills and daughter Barbara of Roseville and Anne Griffin of Farmington have been invited to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooke on Thanksgiving.

The two R.A.F. trainees from Grosse Pointe who were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Christmas recently expect to visit them again on Thanksgiving Day. They are Maurice Burden and Roland Craven, English boys in this country to receive their aviation training.

Arthur Bolamier of Flint, a sailor stationed at Norfolk, may also be a guest of the Christmas family on that day. Mr. Bolamier sails on the same ship as Edward Christmas.

Catherine Harlan of Rockford is planning to spend her Thanksgiving vacation with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook. She and her host and hostess will be guests of the Cooke's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tripp for Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Sayre Harger are planning a family dinner party for the holiday this week.

Detroit relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Max Hulett have been invited to be their guests on Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Frank Bradley is spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. Walter Coon while her husband is deer hunting.

Miss Ruth Carlisle and Miss Carrie Christianity plan to leave for Lake Worth, Florida this week.

The Lonely Shack

By ALICE DUANE

(McClure Syndicate—WNN Service.)

KENNETH BARTON waited for the maid to open the door of his apartment, instead of following his usual custom of using his own key. Already, he felt a man apart.

"Oh, Kenneth," Celia rose and slowly came across the room to meet him. "I didn't hear you. You're early, aren't you?"

"Yes," he spoke shortly. "I saw the doctor."

"Oh," said Celia. "Yes. Tell me."

"Well—it's—I'm through. The doctor says I've got to give up."

His voice was quiet. Dead, Celia thought, yearningly. But she only said, "I'm sorry, Kenneth."

"I'll go to the shack in the mountains," he said. "You'll stay on here, of course. The money is all right, you know. That needn't worry you. You're a clever manager. And fortunately, Kenn's at boarding school anyway."

"But Kenneth—" Celia's voice was choked. "I'll get through," she thought passionately. "We've got so far apart, we can't reach each other."

"I'll leave in a week," Kenneth went on. "Blanton will be in charge of things—he'll keep you posted." Celia winced. Kenneth carefully kept his eyes turned away from her.

Blanton didn't matter, thought Celia wearily. Blanton was Kenneth's law partner. Clever. Charming. Good looking. But he didn't matter, really. Only Kenneth mattered.

"I'll go to the shack in the mountains," he said. "You'll stay on here, of course. The money is all right, you know. That needn't worry you. You're a clever manager. And fortunately, Kenn's at boarding school anyway."

"But Kenneth—" Celia's voice was choked. "I'll get through," she thought passionately. "We've got so far apart, we can't reach each other."

"I'll leave in a week," Kenneth went on. "Blanton will be in charge of things—he'll keep you posted." Celia winced. Kenneth carefully kept his eyes turned away from her.

Blanton didn't matter, thought Celia wearily. Blanton was Kenneth's law partner. Clever. Charming. Good looking. But he didn't matter, really. Only Kenneth mattered.

"I'll go to the shack in the mountains," he said. "You'll stay on here, of course. The money is all right, you know. That needn't worry you. You're a clever manager. And fortunately, Kenn's at boarding school anyway."

"But Kenneth—" Celia's voice was choked. "I'll get through," she thought passionately. "We've got so far apart, we can't reach each other."

"I'll leave in a week," Kenneth went on. "Blanton will be in charge of things—he'll keep you posted." Celia winced. Kenneth carefully kept his eyes turned away from her.

Blanton didn't matter, thought Celia wearily. Blanton was Kenneth's law partner. Clever. Charming. Good looking. But he didn't matter, really. Only Kenneth mattered.

"I'll go to the shack in the mountains," he said. "You'll stay on here, of course. The money is all right, you know. That needn't worry you. You're a clever manager. And fortunately, Kenn's at boarding school anyway."

"But Kenneth—" Celia's voice was choked. "I'll get through," she thought passionately. "We've got so far apart, we can't reach each other."

"I'll leave in a week," Kenneth went on. "Blanton will be in charge of things—he'll keep you posted." Celia winced. Kenneth carefully kept his eyes turned away from her.

Blanton didn't matter, thought Celia wearily. Blanton was Kenneth's law partner. Clever. Charming. Good looking. But he didn't matter, really. Only Kenneth mattered.

"I'll go to the shack in the mountains," he said. "You'll stay on here, of course. The money is all right, you know. That needn't worry you. You're a clever manager. And fortunately, Kenn's at boarding school anyway."

"But Kenneth—" Celia's voice was choked. "I'll get through," she thought passionately. "We've got so far apart, we can't reach each other."

"I'll leave in a week," Kenneth went on. "Blanton will be in charge of things—he'll keep you posted." Celia winced. Kenneth carefully kept his eyes turned away from her.

Blanton didn't matter, thought Celia wearily. Blanton was Kenneth's law partner. Clever. Charming. Good looking. But he didn't matter, really. Only Kenneth mattered.

"I'll go to the shack in the mountains," he said. "You'll stay on here, of course. The money is all right, you know. That needn't worry you. You're a clever manager. And fortunately, Kenn's at boarding school anyway."

"But Kenneth—" Celia's voice was choked. "I'll get through," she thought passionately. "We've got so far apart, we can't reach each other."

"I'll leave in a week," Kenneth went on. "Blanton will be in charge of things—he'll keep you posted." Celia winced. Kenneth carefully kept his eyes turned away from her.

Blanton didn't matter, thought Celia wearily. Blanton was Kenneth's law partner. Clever. Charming. Good looking. But he didn't matter, really. Only Kenneth mattered.

"I'll go to the shack in the mountains," he said. "You'll stay on here, of course. The money is all right, you know. That needn't worry you. You're a clever manager. And fortunately, Kenn's at boarding school anyway."

"But Kenneth—" Celia's voice was choked. "I'll get through," she thought passionately. "We've got so far apart, we can't reach each other."

"I'll leave in a week," Kenneth went on. "Blanton will be in charge of things—he'll keep you posted." Celia winced. Kenneth carefully kept his eyes turned away from her.

AT THE REDFORD THEATER

KISS THE BOYS GOODBYE

Paramount Pictures, which apparently knows a good thing when it sees one has fetched that bouncing, buoyant Broadway comedy "Kiss the Boys Goodbye" to Hollywood for screen treatment and the result of that transfer from stage to screen will be on view beginning Friday at the Redford Theater. It's been embellished by stars and his music.

Starring Don Ameche and lovely, gifted Mary Martin, and featuring that effervescent musical knockout, Oscar Levant, of the "Information Please" radio program; Connie Boswell, the radio songstress, and Rochester, this time a fugitive (from Jack Benny, the lineup of the new comedy with music is a welcome augury of a perfectly swell time for us film fans. Especially is it a good omen when Victor Schertzinger is at the directorial helm.

Not only is Schertzinger one of Hollywood's most successful directors, with "Road to Singapore" and "Road to Zanzibar" to his credit, but he is also one of the most brilliant composers of Tin Pan Alley, with scores of hit songs to his credit. For "Kiss the Boys Goodbye" he has written the music for five brand new songs, which already have climbed into the hit!

The five newly-minted songs heard in the picture are "Kiss the Boys Goodbye," "Sand in My Shoes," "I'll Never Let A Day Pass By," "Find Yourself a Melody" and "My Start."

It is hard to conceive of a more fitting. Cindy Lou Bethany than impleth, wicked-eyed Mary Martin. Don Ameche, as the new film's Lloyd Lloyd, the stage director who is headwinked by Cindy Lou, but learns to love it, is face to face with a role that should delight the legions of fans. As for Oscar Levant, that witty and knowledgeable male play should be right at home in the role of a composer and instrumentalist, which he is, and a very good one at that. Rochester, we understand through our grapevine, is on his best singing and dancing behavior, probably trying harder so as not to let Jack Benny down.

Others featured in the prize-worthy comedy and entertainment scene are Virginia Dale, Barbara Allen, Raymond Walburn, Elizabeth Patterson and Jerome Cowan.

Cook your turkey this year in a Modern Gas Range and enjoy the best Thanksgiving Dinner you've ever had!

COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS AND ENJOY THIS THANKSGIVING MORE

Tender turkey browned to perfection, golden sweet potatoes, wine-red cranberry sauce, thick pumpkin pie—that's the kind of a Thanksgiving dinner you dream about and that's the kind of a dinner you enjoy when it's properly cooked in a modern gas range.

You will make no mistake when you select this big, new, dependable Detroit Jewel gas range. See it Today!

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY

PRICES ARE STILL LOW

QUALITY HIGH

BIG NEW DETROIT JEWEL $73.00 AND YOUR OLD RANGE

CONVENIENT TERMS

CONSUMERS POWER

CHRISTMAS SEALS

1941 MERRY CHRISTMAS

Protect Your Home from Tuberculosis

tuberculosis was great to work on and hope that he would regain his health. But the educational campaign of the tuberculosis association had taught him about disease he had to fight. So he immediately went to a sanatorium and underwent treatment and complete rest.

Three years after his return to New York Mr. Dohanos was chosen by the Treasury Art Project in Washington to do paintings in the Virginia Islands for federal buildings. Since then he has completed two mural projects—one for the Elkins, W. Va., Agricultural and Forestry Building, the other for the Post Office at West Palm Beach, Fla. He is now working on another mural which will be placed in the Charlotte Amalie Post Office in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands.

• Gosh! WHEN WE STUDY

WE NEED GOOD LIGHT

Life the burden on Johnny's and Mary's eyes... make their homework easier with a brand new L.E.S. study lamp. Use at least a 150-watt bulb. Your dealer has attractive new styles now on display. See them today. (We do not sell these lamps.) The Detroit Edison Company.

Buy Farmington Products

Thanksgiving Won't Take ALL the Turkeys

and this is a swell time to get your bird ready for the holiday season.

Use LARRO Turkey Finisher

FARMINGTON MILLS