ANNUAL SCOUT ROLL CALL IS DECEMBER 2

Tuesday evening, December 2, has been set by Neighborhood Scout Commissioner John W. Hunt for the Scout Annual Roll Call for the City of Farmington. That evening the Cub Scouts and Scout Scouts will gather at the High School gymnasium in uniform, to gather with their Committeemen, and answer to the Roll Call giving their names, addresses, rank and camping experience.

The Roll Call will be a part of the Farmington Cub Pack monthly meeting. The Cubs have arranged an elaborate program of interest to parents and boys alike. The local Cub Pack is steadily adding to its roster and now it appeals to the women of Farmington to volunteer their services as Den Mothers in order that boys will not be turned away from Cubbing. Scoutmaster Lee Moats reports that he has Den Chiefs ready to assist Den Mothers, and with boys asking to join the Cubs, the Pack Master hopes to report the largest Pack in Clinton Valley Council by the first of January.

Ladies wishing to volunteer their services as Den Mothers may call John Hunt at telephone 382 or call Farmington 520.

The public is cordially invited to the Roll Call and pack meeting, with a special invitation to mothers and dads. There will be no admission charge.

Mrs. Florence Edgar Attends Piano Class

Mrs. Florence Edgar attended a class of piano instruction for three days last week, at the Detroit Institute of Music. The class was conducted by Isidor Philipp, who is a former teacher at National Conservatory in Paris, France. Mr. Philipp is most widely known as a writer of valuable technical works for the piano, and is in America at the present time as a refugee, following the German invasion of his native country.

DRIVER INJURED AS TRUCK ROLLS ONTO HIM

A rather unusual accident occurred early Tuesday morning on Grand River avenue, near the LaSalle Winery. Oscar E. Odycke, 1400 Upton street, Mt. Pleasant, a driver for Advance Petroleum Transport, Inc., had stopped near the Winery to fix the muffler on the truck. Odycke had been sleeping in the cab, with the motor running, and had not turned the motor off when he got out to look at the muffler.

He was found under the left rear wheel, calling for help, by Clyde Wilson. Wilson released the brake of the truck, which rolled over Odycke. Odycke said he had set the brake, and could not understand how the truck rolled onto him. He is in Redford Receiving Hospital, with a broken pelvis bone.
