

Davison-Casler Vows Spoken

Two members of the Plymouth High School graduating class of 1970, Susan Marie Casler, and another sister, Mary Casler, were married Sept. 4 in First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Casler of Forrest Drive, Canton Township, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Davison of Marlowe Street, Plymouth.

Dr. Henry J. Welch performed the candlelight ceremony. Mrs. William Casler, the bride's aunt, sang "Wedding Prayer" and "Because." She was soloist at the bride's parents' wedding 20 years ago.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a high-waisted gown featuring a bodice of ruffled lace over satin and a skirt of chiffon over satin. The long bouffant sleeves were also of lace. The cathedral-length train was centered with a diamond-shaped lace, and the elbow-length veil was held by a crown. The bride carried a cascade of white roses and baby's breath.

The bride's sister, Lynda Casler, was maid of honor. Debbie Albano and Karan Rohan were the bridesmaids, and another sister, Mary Casler, was the junior bridesmaid.

The maid of honor wore a gown of royal blue chiffon over taffeta featuring a high neckline, and a picture hat. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns in light blue. All carried baskets of blue chrysanthemums, daisies and baby's breath.

MARCIA DAVISON, the bridegroom's sister, as flower girl also wore a gown of light blue taffeta and carried a basket of flowers. Gordon Sheppard was the ring bearer.

Best man was Robert Sheppard and the ushers were Rick Davison, the bridegroom's brother, and Michael Russell.

The bride's mother wore a blue brocade gown and the bridegroom's mother chose a pink crepe ensemble. A reception was held for 300 guests in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Plymouth.

Following a wedding trip to Northern Michigan, the couple will live in Plymouth.
