FARMINGTON
The Farmington Township Police Department softball team came within one game of capturing the 1971 Robert Carter Tournament title.

The township won five games before bowing to Macomb County Sheriff's Department 16-7 on Oct. 7.

The tournament consisted of 10 local police departments playing two game knock-out series. The township police won the first three easily, 19-3 over Birmingham, 20-4 over Bloomfield Township and 19-1 over Oakland County Sheriff's.

The township players then squeaked by Pontiac Police 14-13 and subdued West Bloomfield 19-14 before dropping the final contest.

"Team members represented Farmington Township in the most outstanding fashion," comments Ronold Holko, township director of public safety, "demonstrating great sportsmanship and organization, thus creating good relations with the local departments."

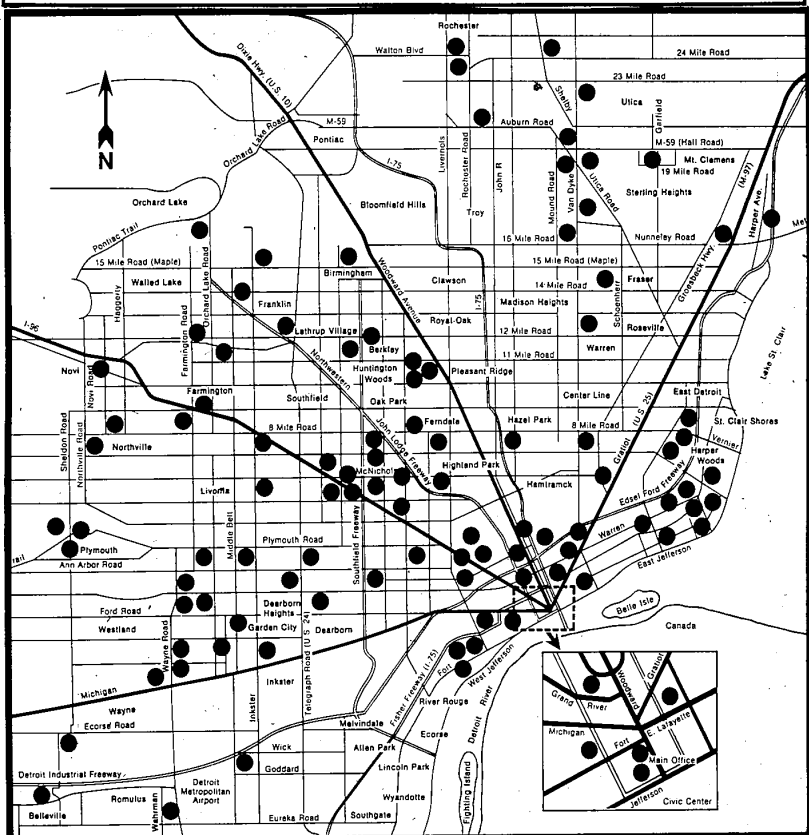

Robert Carter, a Pontiac policeman, was killed in a motorcycle accident on Sept. 24, 1970. He was a softball enthusiast and his wife purchased a trophy in his memory for competition between police departments.

MANUFACTURERS BANK
"That's my bank"

That's us all over.

Every one of those dots represents a National Bank of Detroit office. And every one of those NBD offices lets you deal with Michigan's biggest Bank on a personal basis. You do your banking with people who know you and your community. Without ever having to leave your community. You see, having all those offices hasn't in any way diluted NBD's services. Each office is a full-fledged bank—capable of meeting all your banking needs. And should any special situation arise, the senior management of our main office is only a phone call away. So even though we're Michigan's biggest bank, we're not all that impersonal. We're as friendly as any bank down the street. Because we probably are the bank down the street. That's the advantage of having more dots than any other bank in town. And that's why the bank to see is NBD, National Bank of Detroit.

THE HAPPY FACE, a symbol of an era, has risen from being worn as a lapel button to being used to mask the bell of a sousaphone for half-time ceremonies of Saturday's North Farmington High homecoming game against John Glenn. (Observer photo)
