American Legion Notes

The birthday party for the celebration of the anniversary of the American Legion is set for Saturday night, March 21, at 6:30 in the Town Hall. Dinner will be served to those that have made reservations, and entertainment and dancing will be the order after the dinner.

Don't forget the ladies have a card party this Saturday evening March 7. It is urged that all the members of the Post that can, turn out and join in the fun and entertainment. You are missing something if you have not yet attended one of these parties. It will be a month before another one is held due to the fact that the party in the Town Hall will fall on the next regular date.

The appointment of Carl Goers as Chief Air Raid Warden of Farmington and community has the approval of the Legion. We will give him all assistance possible. Training for the various defense units will start soon.
