Stairway Shelf Space
Houses with modern interiors and plenty of shelf space are easier to keep clean. If the back stairway and landing have always been difficult to keep neat, cover the wall with pastel color-tinted finished insulating boards, and build shelves under the landing. The walls will look clean, can easily be kept spotless with a damp cloth, and the shelves will take care of the clutter that usually accumulated on back stairways in many homes.

Miss Anna Giffin, Miss Alta Giffin of Farmington and Mrs. Tucker from Missouri were Wednesday guests of Mrs. John Gault.

Bad Spelling
Higher education for counterfeiters seems to be the next necessary step. Some counterfeit bills in Syracuse, N. Y., were quickly retired from circulation because a word was misspelled.

Bird Walter Service
Bird walter service is hosted by an inn in Cologne, Germany, where a sparrow has been trained to hop from table to table, take matches from matchboxes and offer them to guests.
