Vet Benefit Fair Set At S'craft

The spotlight will be on civilian opportunities for Vietnam veterans the evening of Jan. 19 and the morning of Jan. 22 at Schoolcraft College.

Much-needed information and individual counseling will be available to those from the Schoolcraft and metropolitan area who served in Vietnam.

It will be provided by seven agencies which, along with Schoolcraft's community services department, are co-sponsoring the first "Veteran's Opportunity Fair" to be conducted in this area.

THE FAIR will be held in Waterman Campus Center from 6 until 9 p.m. on Jan. 19 and from 9 a.m. until 12 noon on Jan. 22.

Ron Griffith, director of community services for the college, says he expects hundreds of veterans will attend the fair. By holding it twice he feels it should be able to meet the time schedules of most who will want to participate.

Information and individual counseling on these subjects will be available: education benefits, disability benefits, medical and dental benefits, home loan benefits, G.I. insurance, the Michigan Veteran's Trust Fund, short term loans, and tuition benefits.

Also, emergency grants, Michigan veteran related laws, apprenticeship programs, private trade schools, private flight schools, Schoolcraft programs, veteran's clubs (local and regional), and Red Cross benefits.

COOPERATING agencies include the Michigan Department of Education, Michigan Employment Security Commission, Michigan Veterans Trust Funds, Red Cross, Veteran's Administration, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and United States Labor Department.

Special assistance is being provided by members of the Schoolcraft College Veterans Association, a student group.

There is no charge for the program. Pre-registration can be completed by calling the community services office at the college.

EMU Club To Give Vets Info

Eastern Michigan University's Veterans' Assn. will distribute information on GI benefits from 6-9 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 13 in Westland Shopping Center, Warren at Wayne Rd., Westland.

Bob Ayotte, an EMU student from Livonia, said the Veterans' Assn. aims at helping other veterans go back to school or receive other veterans' benefits.

Ayotte said the program, already active on an informal basis at EMU, hopefully will help Vietnam veterans who may not have been informed of benefits.

The Livonian added that the EMU group plans similar informational efforts at Schoolcraft College on Jan. 19 and at other area shopping centers in the near future.

Dog Training Classes Set By Oakland

The Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission announces the opening of winter dog obedience classes. These classes will be held at the Waterford - Oaks Activities Center, located at 2800 Watkins Lake Road in Waterford Township.

Evening sessions will begin at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 18. Morning classes will begin Wednesday, Jan. 19, at 10 a.m. Each unit consists of 10 weeks of classes for one hour each week.

A well-trained dog is a great companion, and training him properly teaches him to live without being annoying.
