

Kol Ami Dinner Is Jan. 15

Mrs. Helene Steinberg of Farmington is chairman of a gourmet potluck supper being held Saturday, Jan. 15, by members of Temple Kol Ami.

Assisting her is Mrs. Jan Gittlin of Walled Lake. Theme of the dinner is Dvorak's "New World Symphony."

The gourmet dinner series was begun three years ago. Burton Holland of Oak Park, new to the area, hoped that he and his wife would soon make new friends.

God Squad To Give Concert In Livonia

The God Squad, a group of young people from area Churches of Christ, will give a concert at 6:30 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 16, in the Kenwood Church of Christ, 20200 Merriman, Livonia.

The group meets regularly for rehearsals in South Redford Church of Christ and is available for concerts on weekends. Anyone interested in having them perform should contact the church, 26305 W. Chicago, Redford Township.

The group was first formed two years ago to sing the gospel songs of today in an effort to identify with the problems of youth as well as give new food for thought to people of all ages.

The singers are sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth of the Sts. Constantine and Helen staff will preach on succeeding Sundays.

Father Remondos said about 50 to 60 families from his parish are living in this area.

"The chapel is being started to serve them better," he added.

A full religious and social program, including Sunday School for the children and a religious education program, is planned for the new church.

THEY WORKED with their mothers Saturday mornings, cleaning, dusting and waxing the sacristy, cleaning the confessionals, laying out vestments for Sunday mass.

In performing these tasks, they also had to check the colors of the day for the vestments. Thus they learned about the color symbolism for the church seasons.

The Girl Scout group makes provision for a troop to design and fulfill requirements for its own badge. Troop 573 members wanted to build theirs around a project that would be of service to their church and add to their own knowledge.

They also aimed to set up the requirements so they could be carried out in churches of other denominations.

When they had finished, they also did the embroidery work on the badges. Their
