FARMINGTON STUDY — "Farmington: Past, Present and Future" will be topic of the meeting of the West Bloomfield-Farmington Area League of Women Voters at 8 p.m. Jan. 25 in Trinity Episcopal Church, 26880 LaMuera Dr., Farmington. Mrs. Mabel Fake (left) will review Lee Peel's book on Farmington. The reviewer is discussing the pictorial history with its author Peel, shown at the right. (Evert photo)

Community Thanked During Jaycee Week

The Farmington Jaycee Auxiliary is extending a thank you to the community for its support while observing Jaycee Week, Jan. 16-22.

During this week, Jaycee chapters across the nation are planning promotional and community projects.

THE AUXILIARY, the wives organization of the Jaycees, is instead using the week to thank the community for its support of Jaycee projects during the past year.

Among the Jaycee projects is furnishing new park equipment enjoyed by adults and children at the new Drake Road Park and City Park on Shilwassee. The chapter also furnished the lighted ball diamonds at City Park.

Area residents find shelter at the Jaycee Shelter at the city ice rink and enjoy swimming and musical and dramatic productions at the local high schools, made possible by a pool-auditorium bond issue promoted by the Jaycees.

FLAGS furnished by the Jaycees fly at local businesses throughout the city on national holidays.

The Farmington Community Center facilities have been brightened by the Jaycees who have done extensive remodeling.

Children have had fun and competition with such events as the annual Easter egg hunt; haunted house; and junior athletic programs such as junior champ, punt, pass and kick, and junior golf.

The community may be a little cleaner because of several clean-up efforts, interest in junk car removal and concern about conditions in the city and township.

DEDICATION to community improvement by the

JCs has brought interest in medical facility needs, work with youth in drug abuse programs, and needs of Farmington schools.

Interest in youth has been exemplified by the annual junior miss pageant.

Fitness Programs Scheduled

Adults and families in the Farmington Area YMCA service area are invited to join a new physical fitness program called "Fitness Finders."

The program, for both men and women, is designed for persons who need to begin a fitness program in the Farmington, West Bloomfield Hills and Novi areas.

It is a group program incorporating the latest results in human body physiology. The course can help participants achieve cardiovascular exercise, muscle tone, weight control and loss, and spot body firming.

The Wednesday classes will be from 9-10 p.m. in the Hillside Day School, 32200 Middle Belt, Farmington, between 14 Mile and Northwestern Highway. The first class will be held Jan. 26.

The Friday classes begin Jan. 21 and will be held from 8:30-10 p.m. in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic School gym at 23615 Power Rd., at Shilwassee, Farmington. Use back entrance at west side of school.

The class fees, which include a $5 course manual, are $15 for one adult, $20 for two adults and $25 for a family. YMCA membership is also required. Call the Farmington Area YMCA to register.

Lee Peel's Book Topic By League

"Farmington: Past, Present and Future" will be the topic of the Jan. 25 meeting of the West Bloomfield-Farmington Area League of Women Voters.

A feature of the meeting will be Mrs. Mabel Fake reviewing Lee Peel's book, "A Pictorial History of Farmington," as a means of reporting the past of Farmington.

Peel, a teacher at Farmington High School, spent three years researching the book which is now on sale for $15 a copy.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the Trinity Episcopal Church at 26880 LaMuera Dr., Farmington.

Slides of present day Farmington will be shown to illustrate present land use for schools, shopping, residential and commercial property.

Future development of available land will also be discussed. The topic is a venture of League's study committee on planning and zoning of Farmington.

Committee members who will work on the study include Mrs. Charles Gallagher, Mrs. Roger Olds, Mrs. Robert Bowland, Mrs. Donald Moore, Mrs. William Haase, Mrs. Sangster Warren, Mrs. Tom Clements and Mrs. Ervin Heumann.

The public is welcome to the Jan. 25 meeting.
