F.H.S. AVENGES EARLIER DEFEAT BY R.U.H.S.

Friday night a different Farmington basketball team defeated Redford Union in a thrilling packed game, by the score of 30-23.

Getting off to a traditionally slow start, Farmington soon found the score was knotted at 6-6. Both teams added 6 more points in the next quarter, and the score stood 12-12.

The second half was a repetition of the first and at the end of the third quarter each team had tallied 9 points to make the score 20-20.

In the final 8 minutes of play Coach Hutton's team got its second breath and added 10 points, while R.U. was getting only 3. The final score at the end of four exciting quarters was 30-23 in Farmington's favor.

The game played before a capacity crowd. This week Clarkson comes to Farmington.

The Line-up

F.H.S.-R.U. To Play For Rubber

A rubber game between Farmington and Redford Union has been planned for March. Each team has won one game. R.U. won the first, 19-17, and F.H.S. the last, 30-23. This announcement was made by Coach Hutton. However, it will not count in the League competition.

SOPHOMORES OUT IN FRONT ON HONOR ROLL

Outdistancing their nearest rivals by ten, the Sophomore class takes honor for scholastic achievement. The Juniors and Freshmen are tied for second place, with twenty-two high-point students each. Seniors somehow or other got lost in the shuffle.

Those having at least a B average for the last six weeks are: Kenneth Bacon, Helen Rosaleson, Co. William Doll, Allen Dunkel, Rith Elliott, Richard Fournier, Joyce Gerds, Lois Goers, Norman Goers, Sue Goodrich, Priscilla Griffin, Fred Hamlin, Milton Knight, Charles Locksenter, Robert Lundberg, Joyce Lusford, Mildred McKee, William Monagan, Kathleen Morris, Harriet Nebus, Shirley Overmyer, Ruth Peters, Jean Power, Marian Rowlands, Joyce Samuelson, Erva Sills, Grace Smith, Marie Vandenberg, Geraldine Whitford, Clyde Yokom, Patricia Young — Sophomores.

Betty Aschenbrenner, Evelyn Brooks, Henry Colaban, Charles Diamond, Jean Dickerson, Louise Elie, June Esch, Nancy Fawcett, Annaliese Foster, Dorothy Gustafson, Edith Kargetzka, Fred Kupsky, Lilian Larsen, Audrey Lathrup, Zonna Lifestaff, Patricia O'Rourke, Kathleen Tassie, Kenneth Way, and June Wilder—Juniors.

Robert Anderson, Joyce Brown, Carmela Brantclinton, Doris Campbell, Richard Goh, Mary Grant, Alice Griffith, Doris King, Doris Maas, Nancy Lee Moore, Ilene Morris, Conbie Rosenboom, Ethel Turner, Susanne Warner and Betty Wood—Seniors.

All students mentioned in the above list received B or better averages for the semester, except those whose names are starred.

Sisters To Live In Highland Park

We are sorry to learn that two sisters from Farmington High have left us to live in Highland Park.

We hope Patty and Mary Jo Cale come back often to see us.

Sophomore Leaves To Join Father

Kenneth Griffin has left with his family to join his father at Walnut Ridge, Arkansas.

Kenneth's father, Major Griffin, who is second in command in the air corps, is stationed at Pilot Field, near Walnut Ridge.

HATS OFF!

To the very clever posters which are found every week on the walls of Miss Barnard's class room must go the spoils of victory. It's interesting to note how a mere hand-drawn picture can elicit a tremendous interest in a campaign. The posters each week hold every one's interest, though—as they are original and unique.

Hate off to the students of the first year typing class who so cleverly used the idea of holding their fellow classmates' attention and willingness to buy more and more. What! (War Savings Bonds and Stamps.) —D.K.

Distributive Education Gains Much Merit

Several girls in Mr. Ryan's cooperative training program have completed a semester course on Burrough's calculator and the bookkeeping machine.

Rachel Turner has enrolled in the program and is now working in the Farmington bank.

Vera Nelson has dropped the course for pre-induction training.

AROUND THE GRADES

The second graders are learning to tell time by making clocks out of paper plates. New magazines and cut-outs have been added to the busy work table. Six new history books have been bought for the library table. A new science book and reader "Friendly Village" have been started.

In health class the fourth graders enjoy the reading of "The Magic Mirror." The lesson unit is being studied in geography.

Suzanne Warner, senior, taught the first grade last week when a substitute could not be found for Mrs. Simms, who was ill.

THE CASABLANCA CONFERENCE . . .

Morale of the Allied Nations is probably much better after this historic Casablanca conference. We hope the people do not get too confident of an early victory and slacken up in their all-out war effort.

Announcement before hand that important news was coming at 10 p.m. Tuesday was a mistake because much of the important news that took place at the conference could not be announced. One thing that was not mentioned (and we hope there was some action on) was a unified Allied command.

The Axis didn't know what was happening although they knew that something was up. One reason for their failure was that the Washington dispatches reporting the President's intervention in the coal strike. So they announced that Churchill was meeting in Washington.

We are sorry that Stalin and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek couldn't attend the conference, but there were probably very good reasons for their absence. No doubt war conditions in their own countries did not justify their leaving at that time.

Although we do not know all of what happened at Casablanca, it is very good to know the Allies want an unconditional surrender.

WE CAN LEARN FROM REDFORD UNION

One of the most sportsman-like gestures seen around Farmington High in years came from Redford Union when they sent a letter of apology for an audience reaction (for which they were not entirely responsible) to our school. Dave Sullivan, president of the Student Council, read this letter at a Pop meeting, held Friday, January 27, preceding the Redford Union game.

BROTHER BILL

(Dedicated to My Brother)
I remember how you teased me
And I tried to tease you, too
But somehow I couldn't think
Of things—
Of you had me laughing at your jokes
'Til I started feeling ill,
But yet I still remember
That you are my brother Bill.

When my plate overflowed with gravy
From the table to the floor,
You used to call me "sloppy";
And those words I didn't ignore.
I think of them over and over again.
While I sit sitting still,
Because these words were so familiar
Coming from you, big brother Bill.

After church on Sunday morning
When the days were warm and bright,
You would take a sandwich and run
To play golf 'til it was night.
I'd look at the score on the card
And you would say "I would kill
And boy, I sure was so proud
Of you, my brother Bill!"

We miss you here, at home, now—
Mother, dad, and all of us folks—
But I bet you have your buddies laughing.
At all your clever jokes.
When your job is over and those Japs run down the hill,
The door will be wide open for you, my brother Bill.

BASKETBALL SUMMARY

By defeating Redford Union, Farmington brought its total to 139 points, while holding its opponents to 116. Farmington's scoring has been brought about by sinking 70 baskets and 59 foul shots; opponents have made 69 baskets and 38 foul shots.

Farmington has had a chance at 150 foul shots but has made 63 for a score of 45.4 per cent. Seven opponents have tried 94 and made 38 for a score of 41.2 per cent.

Individual scoring has been centered around Cap, Dick Pauline and Eric Mitchell. Pauline has made 20 baskets and 13 foul shots for 54 points, while Mitchell has made 18 baskets and 17 foul shots for 53 points. Hamlin is next with 40 points. Fournier with 16, Wallbank with 14, and Stewart with 12. There are 3 games remaining, and this is the pace continues, these totals should jump considerably.

WEST POINT PARK

The regular meeting of the P.T.A. was held last Thursday, January 28 at the P.T.A. Hall, Miss Georgina Reid, health nurse, gave a health talk, the other speaker, Mr. Strobel of Farmington, on account of illness was unable to attend. The seventh and eighth grade junior Red Cross exhibited the Afghan they had completed. A nominating committee for next year's officers was appointed as follows: Mrs. G. Leonard, Mrs. C. Wickert, and Mrs. K. Kleinbaum. Referees were served. Mrs. Kleinbaum, chairman of the ways and means committee, is planning a party for February.

Mrs. Marvin Addis and Mrs. Emma Addis were guests Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Teahka of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mead and daughter, Maxine, of Farmington, were dinner guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hitchman.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Zwalhen and daughter, Shirley, attended a party Saturday night in honor of Pfc. Charles J. Decker, of Austin, Texas, who is home on a leave.

Mrs. Annice Knight had to close her store on account of the shortage of goods. She also operated the branch of the Wayne County Library, and they are now looking for a new place to put their library, at least the children's books.

"Toby," the handsome big dog which belonged to the Howard Middlewood family, has gone into the Army. Toby was a frequent visitor at the Neighborhood Bible School and at its session Sunday morning the boys and girls sang "Happy Landings" for their friend, "Toby," just as they do for the young men of the neighborhood who enter the service.

Mrs. Elmer Hitchman and her sister, Miss Patrel Keller, were guests Friday of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Keller and their sister, Mrs. William Pickard of South Lyon.

Betty Roberts of Farmington, Road, is reported to be ill with chicken-pox.

Shirley and Karen Grundy, of Hubbard Avenue, are reported ill with mumps.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leo Woods of near Wayne were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Yarrow of Shadybide Avenue, was on the sick list for a few days last week.

Dean Coolman, who enlisted as a Cadet in the air force sometime ago, left his home this week. It is understood that he will be stationed in Miami, Florida.

Mrs. and Mrs. Louis Jennings of Norfolk Avenue spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Jennings' parents, near Flat Rock.

The bake sale Saturday sponsored by the P.T.A. was a great success.

Norbert Schmidt of Shadybide Avenue was on the sick list most of last week.

Mrs. Austin Ault, who was quite ill for a week, is able to be out again.

The week relatives of Robert Hunter, who is stationed at Tampa, Florida, received a clipping from a Florida newspaper saying that Robert Hunter had visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Friedman, who live at the home in West Point Park. A letter from Mrs. Frederick also expressed pleasure at having had the opportunity to entertain the young soldier.

Mrs. Albert Muir and son, Jimmy, were guests at the home of relatives in Detroit, last Thursday.

Henry Chavey of Mayfield Avenue, expects to enter the service on Wednesday of this week.

WEST POINT PARK

E. H. Clapp ground up waste rubber at the Perkins Circuit 44th in Boston. He added rubber "Mour" to a stiff blast of air that was supposed to remove fabric from rubber. Then gave rubber a dose of steam to soften it. Produced a product known as rubber "shoddy." Not very efficient.

How to STRETCH A COW during Meat Rationing

When beef and other meats are rationed, the housewife who knows how to "stretch a cow" can serve meals that are far more appetizing and nutritious. Your weekly quota of beef, pork, veal or lamb can be stretched considerably by the skillful use of "meat extenders."

1. Serve soups—with vegetables, noodles, dumplings, etc.
2. Serve meat pies—with vegetables, and with biscuit or mashed potato topping.
3. Serve parties or meat loaf—meat mixed with bread or cracker crumbs and milk and egg.
4. Serve casserole dishes—escalloped meat with vegetables, noodles or spaghetti.
5. Serve filling soups with a meat stock base, such as ham shank with navy beans, etc., or creamed vegetable soups with sliced frankfurters or dried beef added.
6. Serve macaroni or spaghetti with meat balls and tomato sauce.
7. Serve croquettes, using left-over meats.
8. Stretch meat dishes with rice (lamb curry, Spanish rice, etc.), or with dressing, such as saffron and baked lamb ribs, hearts, rolled breast.
9. Stretch your meat with sauces and gravies such as Swiss steak with mushroom gravy, flank steak with barbecue sauce.
10. Serve hash (with potatoes and onions), or baked beans with frankfurters, sausage, bacon or salt pork.

And remember—(for homes with electric ranges)—that electric cooking makes even the cheaper cuts of meat more tasty and tender!
