

American Legion

Notes
By F. W. Lowrie

A joint meeting of the 17th District will be held in Pontiac at the Legion home on Friday, February 5. The meeting starts promptly at 8:00 p.m. with lunch after the meeting.

The amendment to the Flag Code, Public Law 622, provides that the extended hand salute to the flag, when giving the Pledge of Allegiance, at the words "to the flag" shall be eliminated. The proponents claim the extended arm salute was too similar to that now in use by the Axis nations.

Let's adopt the new way with a will—by holding the right hand over the heart throughout the Pledge.

Born on the battlefields of World War I, The American Legion reached a high point in its service to God and Country, in the first year of World War II.

Responding to the greatest call on its service during the momentous year 1942, with the largest membership in all its history, The American Legion in this first year of the Second World War, recorded the following accomplishments:

Trained Air Raid Wardens. Produced more than 350,000 graduates from its air raid warden schools for the civilian defense program.

Sold more than $100,000,000 worth of War Bonds and Stamps in its nationwide sales campaign.

Set up special schools for training instructors to teach military drill to students in secondary schools under the U.S. Victory Corps high school program.

Contributed at least 150,000 of its members to the Armed Forces for active service in World War II. Crozier-Walker Post has contributed two.

Obtained 242,312 recruits for the Navy, 92,208 for the Army, 6,388 for the Marine Corps, 2,396 for the Coast Guard, 8,969 for the State Guards, 565 for the Merchant Marine and 5,915 as Air Cadets.

Defined the nation's war aims to be First, to win the War; Second, to win the peace; and Third, to preserve the American form of government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Secured Congressional Amendment of its 1919 Charter, approved by President, October 29, 1942, to make "The American Legion a two war organization, by making honorably discharged veterans of World War II eligible for membership.

Operated 2,370 aircraft warning posts by 2,017 posts in the danger zones at an annual cost of more than $112,000.

Enrolled, according to incomplete reports from Posts, 98,787 Legionnaires in Air Warning Service, 337,511 Legionnaires as air raid wardens, 272,386 as volunteer policemen, 34,132 as volunteer firemen, 330,456 as first aid workers, 3,570 as members of the ration boards, 9,571 as members of draft boards and 812 in the civil air patrol.

A contribution of 62,493 plots of blood has been given to Blood Banks by 47,660 Legionnaires.

Private Herman Edwin Mass has been transferred from Big Springs, Texas, to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he is attending the Doall Trade School at the University of Minnesota.

January 26, 1943
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Dear Sirs: Just a line to thank you very much for the paper, and inform you of my change of address. Sure enjoy the Enterprise once a week and I regard it over and over, even to the war ads. While I have the opportunity I might as well add a note of thanks to all those friends at home that were so thoughtful at Christmas time and also to those who have been writing along. I also had a birthday that was well remembered, much to my surprise and joy. Those letters and your small paper keep me in touch with civilization.

I have been sent to Fort Meade, Kentucky, for a fourteen weeks radio operators' course. I'm getting along swell in this outfit, and really like the Army, although there for a while they had us stuck down there out of civilization.

Thank you again,
Pfc Charles W. Sullivan.

Fort McClellan, Alabama

To the Editor: First of all, I would like to thank you for the copies of the Enterprise.

Private Gordon W. Hogle, son of Mrs. Alma Hogle, has been named an instructor in a recently established Army finance school at the Syracuse, New York, Army Air Base.

Private Hogle entered the Army last September, and recently completed a finance training school course at Macon, Georgia. He graduated in 1941 from Michigan State College, becoming affiliated after his graduation with a public accounting firm in Detroit.

Promotions of four captains to major was announced this week at Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Among those promoted was E. M. Hartom, 29105 St. Martins, Farmington, who is a special services officer charged with the supervision of the theatre, morale and sports program of the post.

January 21, 1943
To the Editor: I would like to thank you for sending the Enterprise, which arrived today. I appreciate it very much.

It makes it much easier to think of the things going on in the home town, which, at the present time, seems a long way off.

Thanking you,
Private Bryce Greenman,
Fort McClellan, Alabama.

Private Thomas Dwyer of Camp Haan, California, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer, of Alyce Kay on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Griffin of Alyce Kay announce the marriage of their son, Coast Guard Glenn Griffin to Miss Dorothy Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey, on Saturday, February 6. Glenn attended high school in Farmington and was a member of the graduating class of 1940. Miss Canoeck is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey.

Private Donald A. McIntyre of Buckley Field, Colorado, writes of the interesting studies they are receiving in their training class and has met several Michigan men at his field.

Corporal Harvey Bush from Fort Meade, Washington, is home on leave visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Bush, 3229 Highland Road, and friends and relatives here.

Roland Smith, son of Mr. and to win the peace; and Third, to preserve the American form of government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Secured Congressional Amendment of its 1919 Charter, approved by President, October 29, 1942, to make "The American Legion a two war organization, by making honorably discharged veterans of World War II eligible for membership.

Operated 2,370 aircraft warning posts by 2,017 posts in the danger zones at an annual cost of more than $112,000.

Enrolled, according to incomplete reports from Posts, 98,787 Legionnaires in Air Warning Service, 337,511 Legionnaires as air raid wardens, 272,386 as volunteer policemen, 34,132 as volunteer firemen, 330,456 as first aid workers, 3,570 as members of the ration boards, 9,571 as members of draft boards and 812 in the civil air patrol.

A contribution of 62,493 plots of blood has been given to Blood Banks by 47,660 Legionnaires.

Private Herman Edwin Mass has been transferred from Big Springs, Texas, to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he is attending the Doall Trade School at the University of Minnesota.

January 26, 1943
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Dear Sirs: Just a line to thank you very much for the paper, and inform you of my change of address. Sure enjoy the Enterprise once a week and I regard it over and over, even to the war ads. While I have the opportunity I might as well add a note of thanks to all those friends at home that were so thoughtful at Christmas time and also to those who have been writing along. I also had a birthday that was well remembered, much to my surprise and joy. Those letters and your small paper keep me in touch with civilization.

I have been sent to Fort Meade, Kentucky, for a fourteen weeks radio operators' course. I'm getting along swell in this outfit, and really like the Army, although there for a while they had us stuck down there out of civilization.

Thank you again,
Pfc Charles W. Sullivan.

Fort McClellan, Alabama

To the Editor: First of all, I would like to thank you for the copies of the Enterprise.

Private Gordon W. Hogle, son of Mrs. Alma Hogle, has been named an instructor in a recently established Army finance school at the Syracuse, New York, Army Air Base.

Private Hogle entered the Army last September, and recently completed a finance training school course at Macon, Georgia. He graduated in 1941 from Michigan State College, becoming affiliated after his graduation with a public accounting firm in Detroit.

Promotions of four captains to major was announced this week at Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Among those promoted was E. M. Hartom, 29105 St. Martins, Farmington, who is a special services officer charged with the supervision of the theatre, morale and sports program of the post.

January 21, 1943
To the Editor: I would like to thank you for sending the Enterprise, which arrived today. I appreciate it very much.

It makes it much easier to think of the things going on in the home town, which, at the present time, seems a long way off.

Thanking you,
Private Bryce Greenman,
Fort McClellan, Alabama.

Private Thomas Dwyer of Camp Haan, California, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer, of Alyce Kay on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Griffin of Alyce Kay announce the marriage of their son, Coast Guard Glenn Griffin to Miss Dorothy Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey, on Saturday, February 6. Glenn attended high school in Farmington and was a member of the graduating class of 1940. Miss Canoeck is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey.

Private Donald A. McIntyre of Buckley Field, Colorado, writes of the interesting studies they are receiving in their training class and has met several Michigan men at his field.

Corporal Harvey Bush from Fort Meade, Washington, is home on leave visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Bush, 3229 Highland Road, and friends and relatives here.

Roland Smith, son of Mr. and to win the peace; and Third, to preserve the American form of government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Secured Congressional Amendment of its 1919 Charter, approved by President, October 29, 1942, to make "The American Legion a two war organization, by making honorably discharged veterans of World War II eligible for membership.

Operated 2,370 aircraft warning posts by 2,017 posts in the danger zones at an annual cost of more than $112,000.

Enrolled, according to incomplete reports from Posts, 98,787 Legionnaires in Air Warning Service, 337,511 Legionnaires as air raid wardens, 272,386 as volunteer policemen, 34,132 as volunteer firemen, 330,456 as first aid workers, 3,570 as members of the ration boards, 9,571 as members of draft boards and 812 in the civil air patrol.

A contribution of 62,493 plots of blood has been given to Blood Banks by 47,660 Legionnaires.

Private Herman Edwin Mass has been transferred from Big Springs, Texas, to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he is attending the Doall Trade School at the University of Minnesota.

January 26, 1943
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Dear Sirs: Just a line to thank you very much for the paper, and inform you of my change of address. Sure enjoy the Enterprise once a week and I regard it over and over, even to the war ads. While I have the opportunity I might as well add a note of thanks to all those friends at home that were so thoughtful at Christmas time and also to those who have been writing along. I also had a birthday that was well remembered, much to my surprise and joy. Those letters and your small paper keep me in touch with civilization.

I have been sent to Fort Meade, Kentucky, for a fourteen weeks radio operators' course. I'm getting along swell in this outfit, and really like the Army, although there for a while they had us stuck down there out of civilization.

Thank you again,
Pfc Charles W. Sullivan.

Fort McClellan, Alabama

To the Editor: First of all, I would like to thank you for the copies of the Enterprise.

Private Gordon W. Hogle, son of Mrs. Alma Hogle, has been named an instructor in a recently established Army finance school at the Syracuse, New York, Army Air Base.

Private Hogle entered the Army last September, and recently completed a finance training school course at Macon, Georgia. He graduated in 1941 from Michigan State College, becoming affiliated after his graduation with a public accounting firm in Detroit.

Promotions of four captains to major was announced this week at Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Among those promoted was E. M. Hartom, 29105 St. Martins, Farmington, who is a special services officer charged with the supervision of the theatre, morale and sports program of the post.

January 21, 1943
To the Editor: I would like to thank you for sending the Enterprise, which arrived today. I appreciate it very much.

It makes it much easier to think of the things going on in the home town, which, at the present time, seems a long way off.

Thanking you,
Private Bryce Greenman,
Fort McClellan, Alabama.

Private Thomas Dwyer of Camp Haan, California, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer, of Alyce Kay on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Griffin of Alyce Kay announce the marriage of their son, Coast Guard Glenn Griffin to Miss Dorothy Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey, on Saturday, February 6. Glenn attended high school in Farmington and was a member of the graduating class of 1940. Miss Canoeck is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey.

Private Donald A. McIntyre of Buckley Field, Colorado, writes of the interesting studies they are receiving in their training class and has met several Michigan men at his field.

Corporal Harvey Bush from Fort Meade, Washington, is home on leave visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Bush, 3229 Highland Road, and friends and relatives here.

Roland Smith, son of Mr. and to win the peace; and Third, to preserve the American form of government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Secured Congressional Amendment of its 1919 Charter, approved by President, October 29, 1942, to make "The American Legion a two war organization, by making honorably discharged veterans of World War II eligible for membership.

Operated 2,370 aircraft warning posts by 2,017 posts in the danger zones at an annual cost of more than $112,000.

Enrolled, according to incomplete reports from Posts, 98,787 Legionnaires in Air Warning Service, 337,511 Legionnaires as air raid wardens, 272,386 as volunteer policemen, 34,132 as volunteer firemen, 330,456 as first aid workers, 3,570 as members of the ration boards, 9,571 as members of draft boards and 812 in the civil air patrol.

A contribution of 62,493 plots of blood has been given to Blood Banks by 47,660 Legionnaires.

Private Herman Edwin Mass has been transferred from Big Springs, Texas, to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he is attending the Doall Trade School at the University of Minnesota.

January 26, 1943
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Dear Sirs: Just a line to thank you very much for the paper, and inform you of my change of address. Sure enjoy the Enterprise once a week and I regard it over and over, even to the war ads. While I have the opportunity I might as well add a note of thanks to all those friends at home that were so thoughtful at Christmas time and also to those who have been writing along. I also had a birthday that was well remembered, much to my surprise and joy. Those letters and your small paper keep me in touch with civilization.

I have been sent to Fort Meade, Kentucky, for a fourteen weeks radio operators' course. I'm getting along swell in this outfit, and really like the Army, although there for a while they had us stuck down there out of civilization.

Thank you again,
Pfc Charles W. Sullivan.

Fort McClellan, Alabama

To the Editor: First of all, I would like to thank you for the copies of the Enterprise.

Private Gordon W. Hogle, son of Mrs. Alma Hogle, has been named an instructor in a recently established Army finance school at the Syracuse, New York, Army Air Base.

Private Hogle entered the Army last September, and recently completed a finance training school course at Macon, Georgia. He graduated in 1941 from Michigan State College, becoming affiliated after his graduation with a public accounting firm in Detroit.

Promotions of four captains to major was announced this week at Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Among those promoted was E. M. Hartom, 29105 St. Martins, Farmington, who is a special services officer charged with the supervision of the theatre, morale and sports program of the post.

January 21, 1943
To the Editor: I would like to thank you for sending the Enterprise, which arrived today. I appreciate it very much.

It makes it much easier to think of the things going on in the home town, which, at the present time, seems a long way off.

Thanking you,
Private Bryce Greenman,
Fort McClellan, Alabama.

Private Thomas Dwyer of Camp Haan, California, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer, of Alyce Kay on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Griffin of Alyce Kay announce the marriage of their son, Coast Guard Glenn Griffin to Miss Dorothy Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey, on Saturday, February 6. Glenn attended high school in Farmington and was a member of the graduating class of 1940. Miss Canoeck is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey.

Private Donald A. McIntyre of Buckley Field, Colorado, writes of the interesting studies they are receiving in their training class and has met several Michigan men at his field.

Corporal Harvey Bush from Fort Meade, Washington, is home on leave visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Bush, 3229 Highland Road, and friends and relatives here.

Roland Smith, son of Mr. and to win the peace; and Third, to preserve the American form of government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Secured Congressional Amendment of its 1919 Charter, approved by President, October 29, 1942, to make "The American Legion a two war organization, by making honorably discharged veterans of World War II eligible for membership.

Operated 2,370 aircraft warning posts by 2,017 posts in the danger zones at an annual cost of more than $112,000.

Enrolled, according to incomplete reports from Posts, 98,787 Legionnaires in Air Warning Service, 337,511 Legionnaires as air raid wardens, 272,386 as volunteer policemen, 34,132 as volunteer firemen, 330,456 as first aid workers, 3,570 as members of the ration boards, 9,571 as members of draft boards and 812 in the civil air patrol.

A contribution of 62,493 plots of blood has been given to Blood Banks by 47,660 Legionnaires.

Private Herman Edwin Mass has been transferred from Big Springs, Texas, to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he is attending the Doall Trade School at the University of Minnesota.

January 26, 1943
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Dear Sirs: Just a line to thank you very much for the paper, and inform you of my change of address. Sure enjoy the Enterprise once a week and I regard it over and over, even to the war ads. While I have the opportunity I might as well add a note of thanks to all those friends at home that were so thoughtful at Christmas time and also to those who have been writing along. I also had a birthday that was well remembered, much to my surprise and joy. Those letters and your small paper keep me in touch with civilization.

I have been sent to Fort Meade, Kentucky, for a fourteen weeks radio operators' course. I'm getting along swell in this outfit, and really like the Army, although there for a while they had us stuck down there out of civilization.

Thank you again,
Pfc Charles W. Sullivan.

Fort McClellan, Alabama

To the Editor: First of all, I would like to thank you for the copies of the Enterprise.

Private Gordon W. Hogle, son of Mrs. Alma Hogle, has been named an instructor in a recently established Army finance school at the Syracuse, New York, Army Air Base.

Private Hogle entered the Army last September, and recently completed a finance training school course at Macon, Georgia. He graduated in 1941 from Michigan State College, becoming affiliated after his graduation with a public accounting firm in Detroit.

Promotions of four captains to major was announced this week at Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Among those promoted was E. M. Hartom, 29105 St. Martins, Farmington, who is a special services officer charged with the supervision of the theatre, morale and sports program of the post.

January 21, 1943
To the Editor: I would like to thank you for sending the Enterprise, which arrived today. I appreciate it very much.

It makes it much easier to think of the things going on in the home town, which, at the present time, seems a long way off.

Thanking you,
Private Bryce Greenman,
Fort McClellan, Alabama.

Private Thomas Dwyer of Camp Haan, California, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer, of Alyce Kay on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Griffin of Alyce Kay announce the marriage of their son, Coast Guard Glenn Griffin to Miss Dorothy Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey, on Saturday, February 6. Glenn attended high school in Farmington and was a member of the graduating class of 1940. Miss Canoeck is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey.

Private Donald A. McIntyre of Buckley Field, Colorado, writes of the interesting studies they are receiving in their training class and has met several Michigan men at his field.

Corporal Harvey Bush from Fort Meade, Washington, is home on leave visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Bush, 3229 Highland Road, and friends and relatives here.

Roland Smith, son of Mr. and to win the peace; and Third, to preserve the American form of government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Secured Congressional Amendment of its 1919 Charter, approved by President, October 29, 1942, to make "The American Legion a two war organization, by making honorably discharged veterans of World War II eligible for membership.

Operated 2,370 aircraft warning posts by 2,017 posts in the danger zones at an annual cost of more than $112,000.

Enrolled, according to incomplete reports from Posts, 98,787 Legionnaires in Air Warning Service, 337,511 Legionnaires as air raid wardens, 272,386 as volunteer policemen, 34,132 as volunteer firemen, 330,456 as first aid workers, 3,570 as members of the ration boards, 9,571 as members of draft boards and 812 in the civil air patrol.

A contribution of 62,493 plots of blood has been given to Blood Banks by 47,660 Legionnaires.

Private Herman Edwin Mass has been transferred from Big Springs, Texas, to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he is attending the Doall Trade School at the University of Minnesota.

January 26, 1943
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Dear Sirs: Just a line to thank you very much for the paper, and inform you of my change of address. Sure enjoy the Enterprise once a week and I regard it over and over, even to the war ads. While I have the opportunity I might as well add a note of thanks to all those friends at home that were so thoughtful at Christmas time and also to those who have been writing along. I also had a birthday that was well remembered, much to my surprise and joy. Those letters and your small paper keep me in touch with civilization.

I have been sent to Fort Meade, Kentucky, for a fourteen weeks radio operators' course. I'm getting along swell in this outfit, and really like the Army, although there for a while they had us stuck down there out of civilization.

Thank you again,
Pfc Charles W. Sullivan.

Fort McClellan, Alabama

To the Editor: First of all, I would like to thank you for the copies of the Enterprise.

Private Gordon W. Hogle, son of Mrs. Alma Hogle, has been named an instructor in a recently established Army finance school at the Syracuse, New York, Army Air Base.

Private Hogle entered the Army last September, and recently completed a finance training school course at Macon, Georgia. He graduated in 1941 from Michigan State College, becoming affiliated after his graduation with a public accounting firm in Detroit.

Promotions of four captains to major was announced this week at Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Among those promoted was E. M. Hartom, 29105 St. Martins, Farmington, who is a special services officer charged with the supervision of the theatre, morale and sports program of the post.

January 21, 1943
To the Editor: I would like to thank you for sending the Enterprise, which arrived today. I appreciate it very much.

It makes it much easier to think of the things going on in the home town, which, at the present time, seems a long way off.

Thanking you,
Private Bryce Greenman,
Fort McClellan, Alabama.

Private Thomas Dwyer of Camp Haan, California, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer, of Alyce Kay on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Griffin of Alyce Kay announce the marriage of their son, Coast Guard Glenn Griffin to Miss Dorothy Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey, on Saturday, February 6. Glenn attended high school in Farmington and was a member of the graduating class of 1940. Miss Canoeck is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Canoeck of Edgewater, New Jersey.

Private Donald A. McIntyre of Buckley Field, Colorado, writes of the interesting studies they are receiving in their training class and has met several Michigan men at his field.

Corporal Harvey Bush from Fort Meade, Washington, is home on leave visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Bush, 3229 Highland Road, and friends and relatives here.

Roland Smith, son of Mr. and to win the peace; and Third, to preserve the American form of government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Secured Congressional Amendment of its 1919 Charter, approved by President, October 29, 1942, to make "The American Legion a two war organization, by making honorably discharged veterans of World War II eligible for membership.

Operated 2,370 aircraft warning posts by 2,017 posts in the danger zones at an annual cost of more than $112,000.

Enrolled, according to incomplete reports from Posts, 98,787 Legionnaires in Air Warning Service, 337,511 Legionnaires as air raid wardens, 272,386 as volunteer policemen, 34,132 as volunteer firemen, 330,456 as first aid workers, 3,570 as members of the ration boards, 9,571 as members of draft boards and 812 in the civil air patrol.

A contribution of 62,493 plots of blood has been given to Blood Banks by 47,660 Legionnaires.

Private Herman Edwin Mass has been transferred from Big Springs, Texas, to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he is attending the Doall Trade School at the University of Minnesota.

January 26, 1943
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Dear Sirs: Just a line to thank you very much for the paper, and inform you of my change of address. Sure enjoy the Enterprise once a week and I regard it over and over, even to the war ads. While I have the opportunity I might as well add a note of thanks to all those friends at home that were so thoughtful at Christmas time and also to those who have been writing along. I also had a birthday that was well remembered, much to my surprise and joy. Those letters and your small paper keep me in touch with civilization.

I have been sent to Fort Meade, Kentucky, for a fourteen weeks radio operators' course. I'm getting along swell in this outfit, and really like the Army, although there for a while they had us stuck down there out of civilization.

Thank you again,
Pfc Charles W. Sullivan.

Fort McClellan, Alabama

To the Editor: First of all, I would like to thank you for the copies of the Enterprise.

Private Gordon W. Hogle, son of Mrs. Alma Hogle, has been named an instructor in a recently established Army finance school at the Syracuse, New York, Army Air Base.

Private Hogle entered the Army last September, and recently completed a finance training school course at Macon, Georgia. He graduated in 1941 from Michigan State College, becoming affiliated after his graduation with a public accounting firm in Detroit.

Promotions of four captains to major was announced this week at Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Among those promoted was E. M. Hartom, 29105 St. Martins, Farmington, who is a special services officer charged with the supervision of the theatre, morale and sports program of the post.

January 21, 1943
To the Editor: I would like to thank you for sending the Enterprise, which arrived today. I appreciate it very much.

It makes it much easier to think of the things going on in the home town, which, at the present time, seems a long way off.

Thanking you,
Private Bryce Greenman,
Fort McClellan, Alabama.

Private Thomas Dwyer of Camp Haan, California, called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer,