CLARENCEVILLE - By Mrs. Mary Rutile

Communicable Disease was the subject discussed in the Home Nursing Class last Wednesday. Miss Bittrich, the County Nurse, gave an outline of the different contagious diseases. The class is nearing completion of the course. Mr. W. W. Linemeyer who has been the caretaker at Edgewood School for the past 18 years, will celebrate his 78th birthday anniversary on March 21. Congratulations are extended to Mr. Linemeyer and we hope he has many more happy years.

The Air Raid Warden's Ladies Auxiliary of Oxford, Cambridge and Waldron had their first tin can collection last week. They hired a trailer and the ladies made the pickup. They have brought two stretchers, have a number of first aid kits and are working on their third quilt. In other words, as far as the War Club set-up is concerned, theirs is perfect and others could well use it as a pattern. To raise further funds for their activities Mrs. Gordon of Cambridge has loaned her home for a luncheon and card party on Thursday of this week. They began their activities with seven or eight women and the Club now has 17 or 18 members. Mrs. Albert Brown has been called home to Eaton, Ohio, by the serious illness of her father. Albert Monette and family were in the neighborhood on Sunday to bid farewell to friends and relatives. They are taking up residence in Alpen after spending many years in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly were guests of the Henry Dehanke's on Sunday. The Cubs of Pack 282 of Hope Chapel gave an old time dances and card party at the Wilcox School on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Swarbut of this neighborhood attended. The Stewart Thiemkys spent the weekend in Lapeer, Michigan. Mrs. Charles Brown and little daughter of Detroit were guests of the John Holroyds over the weekend.

What a good feeling and an incentive to redouble their efforts is given the Red Cross canvassers when a party called to say "Please come over and get my contribution." It is also noted that those who have given their sons and daughters to the armed forces are among the best contributors. Mrs. Harvey Barnes substituted in the 7th and 8th grades of Farmington on Monday. Mrs. Edna Meyer and family were guests of the Harvey Barnes on Sunday. Virgil Campbell called another organization meeting of the Neighborhood War Clubs on Friday night at the City Hall in Farmington. The different areas are to organize and report back. The Bolthos had Mr. and Mrs. Van Popping and family of Detroit and Sgt. Nobby Clark of the R.A.F. who is on ten day leave from Pensacola, Florida, and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart of Royal Oak as their guests on Sunday. Edgewood School was closed on the afternoon and last week when the water supply of the community was shut off. Miss Etha Smith spent the weekend with her mother in Owosso.

Mrs. Helen Barnes spent Friday in Detroit visiting the Harry B. The impressive dedication of the service flag at the United Church, on Sunday took on an extraordinary reality with the presence of Pvt. Lowell Ryall and Tech. Corp. Barbara Ryall in uniform. The district is having the usual spring trouble-bad roads. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jones of Hugh Street announce the birth of a son on March 5. Mrs. Jones is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Derrick. The Harvey L. Barnes visited friends in Hillsdale on Saturday. Mrs. Helen Barnes was called to East Detroit by the illness of a lifelong friend. The Axel Rutillas had the Louis Devines of Courtright, Ontario, and the Cowan family of Detroit, as their guests on Sunday. Mrs. Melsner, Mrs. Stauch, Mrs. Balfour, Mrs. Nina Wild, Mrs. McWhiter and Mrs. Sinclair were among those who served on Canteen at the Blood Bank at Wilcox School on Middlebelt Road on Monday. Mrs. Henry Dehanke's father left to visit relatives in Detroit after spending a couple of weeks in Clarenceville.

Steady, Steady If a business man isn't too restless and changeable, his business will slowly grow and in time make him rich.
