

Township Officers Re-elected

State-Favored Candidates Win Here

Balotting was extremely light in the Farmington Township election held on Monday, and it appeared to be throughout the Unit.

Candidates were nominated only on the Republican Party ticket this year, and voting in the two precincts was as follows: Figures in the first column are Precinct One, and figures in the second column for Precinct Two.

Supervisor: Ernest Blanchard, 132; Harry McCracken, 133.

Treasurer: Clayton Goers, 182; Justice of the Peace: Harry Shaffer, 119.

Board of Review: Carl C. Hesse, 198.

Constables: Four to be Elected: Grant Helliker, 86; James Fanzini, 93; William LaForge, 101; Godfrey Gagnon, 99.

Young for State officials was as follows:

Republican: Ticket, Regents of the University of Michigan, 11.

R. Spencer Bishop, 164.

Ralph A. Hayward, 104.

Supt. of Public Instruction: Eugene B. Elliott, 106.

Member of State Board Education: Stephen S. Nisbet, 100.

Members of State Board of Agriculture: Whinfred G. Armstrong, 59.

Sarah Van Hoosen Jones, 29.

State Highway Commissioner: Charles M. Ziegler, 97.

Democratic: Ticket, Regents of the University of Michigan, 40.

Charles P. Nugent, 41.

Supt. of Public Instruction: Edward W. McFarland, 43.

Member of State Board of Education: Bernard P. Foley, 43.

Members of State Board of Agriculture: Joseph P. Carey, 43.

Arthur W. Jewett, 44.

State Highway Commissioner: Lloyd B. Reid, 71.

On the non-partisan judicial ballot, Township residents voted as follows:

One voter cast 105 ballots for the Amendment, and 38 against it.

Precinct Two voters cast 71 votes in favor of the Amendment and 25 against it.

Proposal No. Two, to validate certain alienations or mortgages of homestead lands after the lapse of 25 years, Precinct One showed 80 votes in favor of the Amendment and 37 against it, while Precinct Two voters cast 61 votes in favor of the Amendment and 18 against it.

Give the Red Cross ladies your pledge. You may call for your Bond at the Theatre any time during the month of April. The Farmington State Bank and the Post Office will be glad to sell you a Bond, or you may purchase a Defense Stamp at any of the above places.

LIBERTY HIVE: The Farmington Exchange Club Wednesday noon by George Lowell, a member of the Club. Hail off to Mr. Lowell for the fine talk! There was a good crowd present, 28 out of 30 members, and they all thoroughly enjoyed the program.

Song leader Howard Busching and pianist Dr. Voss did a beautiful job of song leading and playing. Dr. Voss won the pot of gold of defense stamp. Dr. Aschenbrenner should have worn the derby, but the Sheriff seems to be slipping.

Al Bauer was a guest of Mr. Hatton and George Paré was the guest of his father, Paul Paré.

Several members are attending a dinner meeting of this district of Exchange Thursday evening at Hock's Inn.

Next week's meeting is particularly important for Ted Hall, National president of Exchange, and several past Michigan presidents, will be in attendance. Clubs from Northville, Bedford, and Birmingham have been invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Hedberg (Margaret Lois Steel, 17166 Ashton Rd., Detroit) announced the birth of a nine pound daughter, Judith Lois, on March 22.
