"What's Your Name?"
A truckman who was swearing at people and behaving badly on a street corner in New York city broke Patrolman John McCroary's record.
In his seven years of the force this was McCroary's first arrest.

Fresh Cranberries Fresh cranberries are now in the market. These tart red berries dress up and pop up any fall or winter meal. Cranberries contain vitamin C and, when served fresh, they retain more of their vitamin content.

NEW DISHES OFFERED AT THE CIVIC

Beginning this week on Wednesday and Thursday, May 5 and 6, and every Wednesday and Thursday thereafter, ladies attending the Civic Theatre will receive free a dish, patterned in the Gilded Rose pattern, of American Lim-oges china. These dishes are truly lovely, and much nicer than any offered before.

Gilded Rose dinnerware is china that you will be proud to put on your table for any occasion. Plan to attend the Civic each week on Wednesday or Thursday and receive a complete set of china.

GIRL SCOUT COLUMN

April 17 proved to be an eventful day for four girls of the Senior Scout Troop, for that was the day they had their pictures taken by the Detroit News, in recognition of the fine work they are doing at the Children's Hospital. The girls were Margaret Wolfe, Sally Gildmeister, Barbara Locker and Virginia Erickson. These girls were selected since they had the most hours of work to their credit.
Congratulations girls, for attaining a little well-learned recognition.

The Easter Bunny himself would have been startled at some of the fancy stipes and designs the girls of Troop Eight created when they decorated eggs at last week's meeting.

The girls of Troop 10 held a bake sale on April 17, with great success. Through this venture they were able to add $10.06 to their treasury. The girls of this troop meet after school on Tuesdays, and work at the Red Cross bandage unit.

The girls of Troop 7 would like the use of a small plot of ground at the west end of Farmington, between Farmington and Gill Roads, so they may have a Victory Garden.

Anyone having some ground they would let the girls use may call Mrs. Riney at Farmington 986-W.

Army Paint Drab

Lustrous olive drab paint is used on army vehicles because that color of paint reflects a minimum of light and renders the vehicles harder to distinguish from the air or from a distance on the ground. While standard numbers have been abandoned because they can be photographed from the air, and blue drab pencil markings, which will not show in air films and are much less liable than white, are now used.

● IN LINE WITH the national policy of conserving manpower and materials, we are adopting the modern postal card type of service statement.

It replaces the old-style larger form of statement which in some parts of the territory served by this Company was sent through the mail in envelopes, and which in other areas was hung on customers' doorknobs by Company representatives.

Introduced in many parts of the country as a war measure, the postal card bill has been welcomed by customers, who find it simpler and easier to handle than the bill enclosed in an envelope or doorknob hanger.

Watch for your first postal card bill.
The picture above will help you recognize it. We hope you will like this change which helps to conserve materials and to meet the wartime manpower situation.

This NEW TYPE of Service Statement IS NOW IN USE
