

JUST IMAGINE . . . people actually hoping they would be "bombed!" That of course, refers only to the paper, "bombs" dropped by C.A.P. planes during Tuesday evening's air raid alert. We'll bet many a heart sent out a silent thank you, that those planes overhead were known to be friendly aircraft, and there wasn't the slightest chance of a sked. This was once when you had to have a "pull" in order to get a "bomb."

PICNIC DAYS . . . are still with us, and will be for some time to come—particularly when the annual neighborhood picnic, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, is set for Wednesday, September 15. That will surely be a gala event for the whole family.

RECORDS . . . are being made every day in this war we're fighting, but they're being made right here at home too. One was made Wednesday evening when the City Council met in regular session at 8:30 p.m. Yes, that's right—actually at 8:30 p.m. We'll quite agree that it is a shock, but nevertheless, the truth.

PEACE . . . seemed to settle over Farmington and the sand-blasters went away. We were so used to having to shout when using the telephone, that it required a considerable amount of self-control to once more reduce our voice to normal speaking.

SEEMS AS IF . . . almost everything is at a standstill waiting for fall to come. That is, everything except those Victory Gardens. Have you noticed that they have been growing like everything these past few weeks?

LOVERS OF BEAUTY . . . and particularly those who love nice china—and what woman doesn't want to be sure and look at the window display in Dickerson Hardware this week. That is what we call really beautiful dinnerware.

MORE POSSIBLE . . . than you think. In Farmington the past week, the only trouble being that they are still on the hoof. Barnyard noises seem to be almost as common on Farmington's main streets as they are in natural environs.

Tin Can Pick-Up Is Monday

Have Containers At The Roadside

Harvey Blough, chairman of the Farmington City collection committee of the general salvage organization, announces that all is in readiness for the tin can collection being made Monday, August 16.

Citizens within the Farmington City limits are asked to open tin cans at both ends, remove the labels and caps, and place them in a container such as a cardboard carton or two or three paper sacks, and put them at the curb in front of the homes early Monday morning, so they may be collected.

Farmington City made a splendid record at its last tin can collection and Mr. Blough has expressed hopes that next Monday's collection will be a record breaker. The need for tin cans for use in the war effort grows daily and our government appeals to the public to save more and more tin cans.

General Salvage Chairman John W. Hunt is appealing to the Township residents to save their tin cans and bring them to the salvage collection center at the Farmington Lumber and Coal Company yard. There a covered shed has been placed at the disposal of the salvage committee for tin cans and old newspapers. Old magazines and newspapers are now needed by our government for packaging of parts to ship overseas, and also because of the wood pulp shortage.

Chairman Hunt also is appealing to the public to put forth extra efforts in the salvaging of waste fats. As the United Nations are doing more bombing and blasting of the Axis, more waste fats are needed to make high explosives. "Strain and pour your waste fats into a wide mouth container," said Mr. Hunt, "and take it to your butcher who will take it to pay for its way. He will soon put it on its way to make explosives for our boys all over the world."

"Nylon and other plastics are still needed," said Hunt, "and these should be taken to any member of the Neighborhood War Clubs, or any wearing apparel store or beauty parlor in town."

Proof that DeRoy's free birthday cigarettes to service men has proven popular is revealed through letters from the men themselves. Many have wondered how DeRoy's obtained their names.

Accordingly Sam Barbas of DeRoy's is planning to continue sending free cigarettes to service men and the popular jewelry firm is again printing a list of their names.

"Please assure the public," said Mr. Barbas, "that there is absolutely no charge or obligation of any kind connected with this offer. All we wish is the return of a check of address, a return of a mailing station in the United States."

Mrs. Fred Westfall is in Pontiac General Hospital where she is recovering nicely from a major operation performed Monday morning.

IN THE C.A.P.

ROBERT DELEUIL

Robert DeLeuil, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. DeLeuil, took an active part in Tuesday evening's air raid alert, as an observer with the Civil Air Patrol.

Bob, who is better known to his many friends in this area, is a tool designer, but feeling that he could contribute more to the war program than just his work, he became a member of the C.A.P. over a year ago. Bob is now a Sergeant with the C.A.P. and is student pilot with nine hours solo flying to his credit. As soon as he has thirty hours of solo work, he will be granted a private license.

Bob was in the plane which crashed over the Eight Mile - Grand River district during the alert Wednesday evening, and about nine "bombs" were dropped in that area.

Kiwanis Plans Many Activities

A business meeting followed the weekly dinner of the Farmington Kiwanis Club Wednesday evening, and plans for future activities were discussed.

On Monday, August 16, the Farmington group goes to Holly for an inter-club meeting. Joe Himmelsbach, in charge of arrangements, stated that a surprise program is in store at this meeting, and all Farmington members will want to be sure to be in attendance at the Holly meeting.

The annual community picnic, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, will be held on Wednesday, September 15, at the City Park. Those who attended last year and recall the grand time they had will be glad to know that the picnic will be given again this year. Tickets will be on sale soon, and may be purchased from members of the Kiwanis Club.

On Wednesday, September 1, the guest speaker at the Kiwanis meeting will be Hon. George A. Dondero, Congressional Representative from the 10th district. Mr. Dondero is well known as a most interesting and entertaining speaker, and Kiwanians have decided to make this an open meeting, so everyone will have the opportunity to hear him. The program will start about 7:30 p.m. and will be held in the Community Hall at the Methodist Church.

Air Raid Alert Is Successful

Farmington cooperated completely in Tuesday night's air raid alert, according to reports from the raid wardens and auxiliary policemen. Everyone seemed familiar with what was required of them, from the first warning, until the all-clear sounded.

All members of the local Office of Civilian Defense were on hand, and the speed and ease with which they responded to the call indicates that the Farmington organization is ready, should an actual alert ever be given.

Although planes were spotted over Farmington, and undoubtedly were part of the "bombing squad" sent out by the Civilian Air Patrol, to drop "bombs" made from paper, making the alert seem most real, no "bombs" were reported in the City or close by. However, about nine "bombs" were dropped in the district at Eight Mile and Farmington Roads.

Indications are that a surprise alert will be held in the near future.

U. S. NURSE CADET CORPS IS FORMING

The Bolton Act has been approved by the President and an appropriation made to establish a U. S. Nurse Cadet Corps to meet immediate and future military and civilian needs. The essential features of the basic nursing program are as follows:

1. Graduation from a senior high school, preferably in a college preparatory course.
2. Scholastic record above average, or student should have been in the upper half of her graduation class.
3. Age in Michigan—as specified by the State Board of Registration of Nurses—18 to 35 years. Some students between 17 and 18 years of age will be considered on an individual basis, if they have good high school records and show evidence of maturity.
4. Good physical condition.
5. U. S. Citizenship.

1. A student must state her willingness to make her services available in military or essential civilian nursing for the duration of the war. Although many students who will benefit under the Act will enter the armed forces, they are asked to pledge themselves to military nursing only. Students who enter the Corps are not asked to pledge that they will not marry, since many essential nursing services are being rendered by married nurses.

Benefits

1. Scholarships and a monthly stipend for all members of the Corps. Scholarships cover tuition and all fees charged by the school and include the cost of books and school uniform. Students are identified by a street uniform as taking an active part in the war effort throughout the training period.

2. Students already in schools of nursing are eligible to join the U. S. Cadet Corps as well as prospective applicants. If the school participates in the plan.

3. The Bolton Act provides that Federal aid may be made available to allow any member of the Corps enrolled 90 days prior to the end of the war to complete her basic nursing education.

Corps Plans

The first 9 months in the school of nursing the student is a Preclinical Cadet. She receives a monthly allowance of $35.00. The next 21 months $30 the student is a Junior Cadet, she receives a monthly allowance of $20.00. At the end of this time she will have completed all her required theory and practice work in the hospital and will enter the Senior Cadet period. This last 6 months, the student is free for assignment where needed in the "home" hospital, other civilian hospital or agency, or in Federal or governmental hospitals. The school is responsible for arranging for the Senior Cadet period, during which supervised experience is secured meeting the school's requirements for graduation and the State Board's requirements for registration. In this Senior Cadet period the student receives a minimum of $30.00 monthly.

Boy Scouts Will Make Collections

Have you any old newspapers or magazines? If so, save them and let them up into bundles for the benefit of our Country's war effort.

Millions of small tank, gun and plane parts are needed overseas and paper is needed for this packaging job. Also, the wood pulp situation is becoming more and more acute due to the shortage of help and the needs of the Army and Navy. Our government has appealed to all citizens to again save their old newspapers and magazines.

John Hunt, salvage chairman, has made arrangements with yard chairman Bayard Tupper, for space at the Farmington Lumber and Coal Company yard to house the paper. Mr. Hunt has asked the public to be sure that paper, when taken to the lumber yard, is securely tied into bundles to facilitate the handling of the paper with governmental authorized dealers.

The Boy Scouts, under Scoutmaster Al Beal, are also arranging periodic pickups of old newspapers for the City of Farmington. The Bond School Troop, under Scoutmaster Ralph Allen, also hopes to assist in paper collection in the Township.

Residents of the Township and City are also invited to bring their bundles of old magazines and newspapers to the Salvage Collection Center at the Farmington Lumber and Coal Company yard.
