SCOUT DAY IS HAILED AS BIG SUCCESS

The Scout Day held by West Point Park Scouts was well attended by Scouts, their friends and parents.

The Intermediate Girl Scouts sold $35.00 in United States Defense Stamps and Bonds. The Boy Scouts made coffee over an open fire, and this was served with the lunch.

Earl G. Silver, field executive of the Boy Scouts of America, presented the Cubs with their charter. The Senior Girl Scouts held an investiture service, using the candle light ceremony.

At the close of the program the entire group gave the Pledge of Allegiance.

"Star-Spangled Banner" New "The Star-Spangled Banner" was first printed, aside from newspaper publication, in the "Aesthetic Magazine" of Philadelphia in 1815. The title at that time was "The Defence of Fort M'Henry."

Coal Outlawed In 1306 King Edward I of England forbade the burning of coal as a fuel. Its use was believed to be dangerous to health and vegetation.
