

EVANGELICAL LADIES PLAN ANNUAL BAZAAR

The ladies of the Salem Evangelical Church are completing arrangements for their annual bazaar to be held at the church on Tuesday, November 16. Dinner will be served at noon from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. and those who wish to eat in a short time, are assured that they will be given prompt service. Reservations may be made.

The ladies are now selling tickets on a $25.00 War Bond, and during the bazaar games will be played, with prizes of Defense Stamps going to the winners. A door prize of Defense Stamps will also be given.

Bernice Lundberg of Middle Bell Road became a cadet nurse at Grace Hospital, Detroit, starting training on September 15. She reports that she likes the work very much and is doing very well. Bernice graduated from Farmington High School last year.

CLEANING UP THE GARDEN

Insects and disease organisms flourish in weeds and vegetable refuse allowed to remain in the garden over winter. Such rubbish is an ideal harboring place for many pests.

If you haven't cleared the garden previously, by all means do not neglect it now. Sanitation and cleanliness are just as important in the garden as in the home.

Put all healthy vegetable matter of suitable texture on the compost pile. Burn diseased or insect-ridden material that would not readily decay in the compost pile.

If the ground is not yet frozen, it is well to spade it and let the soil mellow and absorb moisture over winter. Then you are all set for an early start in spring.

Other November Tasks
Clean, oil and store all tools properly. Tools are doubly precious now, for many are irreplaceable.

NEW ADVENTURE SERIES OPENS AT ART INSTITUTE

Detroiters who must stay home from the war are still determined to get their adventure even though they must enjoy it vicariously.

This is evidenced by the fact that the World Adventure Series, a public service feature at the Detroit Institute of Arts, Woodward at Kirby, has been formed to institute an evening series of motion picture-lectures to take care of the overflow from its regular Sunday afternoon series.

The new adventure series will open Thursday evening, November 11 at 8:20 p.m. and will feature such celebrities as Frank Buck, Burton Holmes and other world travelers and adventurers. The opening attraction will be a motion picture tour and lecture on Australia and New Guinea. Much of the country over which the South Pacific war is now being fought will be pictured. The pictures are so recent that they include shots of Mrs. Roosevelt taken in the war zones.

The complete evening series will be as follows: Nov. 11, "Australia and New Guinea"; Nov. 18, "Mexico in 1943"; Nov. 26, "Erling 'Em' Back Alive" with Frank Buck in person; Dec. 2, "England Under Fire" with Harvey Klemmer, former secretary in the United States Embassy in London, Dec. 9, "The Christians," Dec. 15, "Glorious Glacier Park" with Burton Holmes. Reservations for all lectures may be made by telephone or by mail at the World Adventure Series, Detroit Institute of Arts.

Preaching Mission Is Announced

Rev. Owen L. Miller, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church in Detroit, will be the speaker for the preaching mission at the Clarenceville Methodist Church, beginning Sunday, November 14.

Services will be held every night, Monday through Friday, at 7:45 p.m., and closing on Sunday evening, November 21.

L. Barbara Ryall, of Fairfield, California, called on Mrs. Edgar West and infant daughter, Julia, on Tuesday afternoon. Other callers included Miss Dorothy Snowdon and Mrs. Fred Nickel.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO THE WOMEN

Coffee Crumb Cake for Many Occasions

A CUP of coffee and a slice of the coffee cake go together like the proverbial ham and eggs. The particular coffee cake illustrated above lives up to its name, for it is really flavored with coffee and is as delicious as any you ever tasted. Serve it with full-strength steaming coffee and you'll have a breakfast full of energy and satisfaction with which to start the day.

This versatile recipe for Coffee Crumb Cake is so downright delicious that it can easily serve as a dessert for luncheon or supper as well as a breakfast treat. The addition of coffee as a flavoring and soya flour makes this recipe unusually interesting. When combined with a heartening full-bodied cup of coffee, you have an unbeatable combination. Here is the recipe for Coffee Crumb Cake. It's tested, of course.

- Coffee Crumb Cake
- 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
 - 1/2 cup soya sifted
 - 1/2 cup brown sugar
 - 1/2 cup shortening
 - 1/2 cup baking powder
 - 1/2 teaspoon soda
 - 1/2 cup cold coffee
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1 cup chopped cinnamon
 - Mix flour, soya flour, brown sugar, salt, and cinnamon, and sift together. Cut in shortening mixture in as fine as cornmeal. Measure 1/2 cup and reserve for topping. To the remainder of the mixture add baking powder and soda, and mix thoroughly with fork. Beat egg, add coffee and stir into flour mixture. Pour into deep pie pan and sprinkle with reserved mixture and with nuts. Bake about 1/2 hour in moderately hot oven (400° F.)

COMMITTEES ANNOUNCED FOR GARDEN CLUB

Fourteen different Thanksgiving and Christmas table arrangements were exhibited Monday afternoon at the Farmington Town Hall by members of the Farmington Garden Club.

Mrs. Guy A. Durgan and Mrs. George M. Newlin were awarded first prizes and Mrs. Leo Gamache won second prize for the best dinner table settings. In the varied flower and vegetable arrangements, Mrs. Clarence Johnson won first prize, with Mrs. F. E. Searle and Mrs. Karl Ritter being for second and third prizes.

Mrs. Warren Joy, president of Farmington Garden Club, announced her standing committees as follows: Membership, Mrs. George M. Newlin; Conservation, Mrs. Guy A. Durgan; Publicity, Mrs. William S. Laehn; Scrap Librarian, Mrs. F. E. Searle; Program, Mrs. Harry E. Farmer; and Mrs. Charles Anderson; Courtesy, Mrs. Stanley W. Coon and Mrs. F. W. Sinke; and Horticulture, Mrs. Karl Ritter, Mrs. Joseph Toth, Mrs. Elmer Dohany, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Clarence Bicking and Mrs. F. M. Warner.

Mrs. Minnie Gates spent the weekend in Pontiac with Mrs. Grace Salow and daughter, Betty.

DEDICATION SERVICES HELD LAST SUNDAY

At a lovely worship service on Sunday morning at Salem Evangelical Church, a beautiful mother-of-pearl cross, hanging from the ceiling in the center of the Sanctuary, was dedicated. The cross was given by Mrs. Alice and Mrs. Hilda Foster, in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Foster.

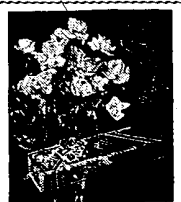

Rev. Schultz gave a most fitting sermon entitled "A Stream In The Desert" and the choir sang a new anthem, "Streams In The Desert," given in memory of and dedicated to John A. Lutz, Sr.

Air Power—Editors of LOOK Magazine. This is the picture story of the U.S. Army Air Forces, produced by the Editors of LOOK in cooperation with the AAF. Its object is to show in pictorial form many vital activities carried on by the AAF in the course of waging the war. Its text treatment is aimed at simplicity and extreme intelligibility, while usage seeks to be both dramatic and comprehensive.

The book opens with a large section on the training of both flying and technical personnel, where most important aspects of the work of the Training Commands are shown graphically, simply. Next there is the picture story of a bomber crew, which is followed by large photographs of all the important bombers in use by the AAF. All releasable data on these planes is furnished. The fighter is treated after this: a picture story on a fighter pilot, followed by large photographs of all important AAF fighter planes. In similar fashion the book treats cargo planes, glider activity, training, observation and liaison planes.

Paris Underground—Etta Shiber. Paris-Underground is not only an unequalled record of exciting exploits, it is also the portrait of a remarkable woman. Mrs. Shiber, after years of sheltered quiet life in New York, was thrust brutally into an adventure which might have been expected to transcend the power of anyone much more accustomed to self reliance. How she took up her new task and met emergencies that could have defeated anyone else is a story that reveals a woman of immense determination, resourcefulness and keen perception of people.

Mrs. Shiber has told not only an astounding story of bravery, daring and self-sacrifice. She also has given the reader an unsurpassed picture of Paris under Nazi rule, a vivid description of the ingenuity and cunning of the Gestapo and a literally "inside story" of prison life in France today. From every view point Paris Under-Ground is among the great books that have come out of the war, and one that may be truly called unique.

So Little Time—John P. Marquand. The scenes of Mrs. Marquand's new novel—his longest and perhaps his finest—are chiefly Bragg, Massachusetts, New York, Southwestern Connecticut, Hollywood and Washington; the time, from the German invasion of Norway to the end of 1941, but in retrospect the novel goes back to 1912 and so gives a broad picture of an era. It is the story of Jeffrey Wilson, a boy from a small New England town, aviator in World War I, then newspaperman, play doctor, movie script rewriter; the story of his married life, his work, his worries, his search for security, his attempt to adjust himself to changing times and environment. It is the story of some good Americans who didn't want to face the probability of total war in the twenty months before Pearl Harbor. And especially it is the story of Jeffrey's relations with his older son, Jim, who was nineteen, a student at Harvard and in love in the spring of 1940. After Dunkirk, Jeffrey began to realize that the United States would get into the war; he thought how little time Jim might have, wanted him to do whatever he chose. But the boy had a mother, too, and Jeffrey's views did not prevail; and in the ensuing conflict Jeffrey learned more about himself and his world than he knew before.

There's a crowd on the lines

It's always a big crowd in these war days. But the long distance operator keeps the calls moving quickly unless there are just too many for the circuits. If she says the circuits are busy, you can help by canceling your call if it isn't really important. But if you can't cancel, the operator will request—"Please wait your call to 5 minutes." It's the work of war we are trying to speed over the wires.
