For Michigan's Mother Of Year $2,500 Fellowship

The search for the "1972 Michigan mother" is now under way.

Nomination blanks are now being distributed throughout the state by the Michigan Mothers Committee. Mrs. Wesley L. Mueller, chairman, 30150 Cheviot Hills Court, Franklin, 48025. Deadline for the receipt of entries is March 1.

Anyone may send in the name of a candidate if she has the recommendation of a recognized organization.

Each candidate must be a regular member and worker

Michelle Susan Beyrand became the bride of John R. Harper in an evening ceremony Friday, Jan. 28, in St. Edith Catholic Church in Livonia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beyrand of Bobrich Avenue, Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Harper of Glenwood Avenue, Lathrup Village, are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. James Ferens officiated.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with lace trim, bishop sleeves and pale pink flowers down the front. Her full-length veil also was trimmed in lace.

Wanda Faulkner of Livonia was maid of honor. Her gown was hot pink chiffon with white lace trim, and she carried magenta and pink flowers.

The bridesmaids, Peggy Williamson of Livonia and Laurie Nador and Pat Williams of Detroit, wore similar gowns in pale pink. They also carried magenta and pink bouquets.

Angie Minichiello of Livonia, in a hot pink dress, and Christopher Beyrand of Livonia, in an Edwardian suit and pink shirt, were flower girl and ring bearer.

ATTENDING the bridegroom were Steve Monette of Redford Township as best man and Gary Beyrand, brother of the bride. Greg Loyer of Detroit and Tom O'Neil, serving with the U.S. Navy in Philadelphia, as ushers.

A reception for 100 guests in the Farmington Holiday Inn followed the rites.

The couple will live at the Selfridge Air Force base where the bridegroom, an Air Force member since 1971, is assigned to radar. The bride is a student at Virginia Farrell Beauty College.

MRS. JOHN R. HARPER
(Michelle Susan Beyrand)

A graduate fellowship for advance study in the field of social service worth $2,500 is again being offered by Alpha Xi Delta, a national social fraternity for women.

Interested persons may obtain an application form from Mrs. Robert Chartrand, 34012 Aztec, Westland. Completed applications must be in by Feb. 15.

To be eligible, an applicant must be a graduate of an accredited college or university; have a grade average of B or above; have applied or been accepted for admission to a graduate school of social work; and be interested in pursuing a career with children or youth to combat delinquency in the U.S.

Alpha Xi Delta is offering the fellowship in support of the belief of civic authorities and juvenile court officials that an increasing need exists for qualified professional personnel to work in this field.

Combating juvenile delinquency has been the fraternity's main national philanthropic goal since 1958.

Society Plans Fashion Show

"Hearts and Hemlines," the 25th annual luncheon and fashion show sponsored by St. Colman's Altar Society of Farmington, will be held

Planning Party

St. Priscilla Catholic Church will sponsor a "Millionaire's Party" in the UAW Hall, 35604 Plymouth Road, Livonia, Saturday, Feb. 5, at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be included in the $6 per couple admission charge.

Golf Lessons Are Offered

Registrations for pre spring golf lessons are being accepted at the Northwest YWCA, 25940 Grand River, Detroit.

Daytime, evening and some weekend spaces are available for men, women and teens.

The classes are geared for beginners as well as advanced students and will cover six weeks of instruction. Pre-registration is necessary by calling or visiting the YW.

New Fabrics To Be Shown

A wrap-pant-skirt that takes only 90 minutes to make will be one of the highlights of the McCall's fabric fashion show to be presented by the J.L. Hudson Co.

The show will be at Northland Thursday, Feb. 10, and Westland, Saturday, Feb. 12.

Both will be in the fabric department, at 12:30 and 2:30 p.m.

Entitled "Fashion in the Spirit of '72," the show will also feature tapestry all-weather coats and a host of blazers and short crop jackets to top almost any costume.
