BOY SCOUTS
HAVE BUSY DAY

A good number of the Boy Scouts and Cubs, with leaders Swarthout, Campbell and Bolitho, were present at the Sunday morning service of the Methodist Church, although the weather prevented their marching.

The boys took part in conducting the service, and Miss Elsie Johns, the pastor, gave a special message, taken from the text contained in the Scout oath.

In the early afternoon, a surprise alert was flashed to Mr. Swarthout from District 7 Headquarters to the Scout Troop chairman, Mr. Belser, to the effect that Central School had been bombed and a casualty was in the building. In about 30 minutes, 12 Scouts and leaders Campbell, Swarthout and Rutilla were on duty in full uniform, the casualty found and taken care of.

The troop leaves for their first encampment of the season at eight o'clock Friday evening, November 12, and will return late Sunday. They will be stationed at Camp Howell near Brighton where they will take part in fire building, cooking, treasure hunts, nature study, hikes, Indian lore and numerous other scouting activities.

ARMISTICE
1918 DAY 1943

WE who will not be scarred in battle have a glorious obligation to those for whose return we pray! We can, in part, fulfill that obligation this significant day—by reverently observing "Taps for the dead—FOR THE LIVING, WAR BONDS"! There is none among us who can say, "I have fought enough". Just as no man in uniform can say "I have fought enough". To him the supreme sacrifice is reality: to us too, sacrifice must be supremely worthwhile—in the name of Victory!
