Dear Editor:

This message is to notify you of my latest address so that delivery of the Enterprise will be expedited. Probably the main reason for the popularity of the home town spaper with the man in uniform is that it aids him in retaining his sense of perspection while in strange surroundings, toward the people and locality to which hell return. Of primary interest to me is the correspondence in your service column from members of the P.H.S. class of '38 which, it is generally conceded, is the most outstanding group ever to graduate from our school. Let's hear more from 'cm.
