WEST POINT PARK

By L. A. Ault

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Willets, of Mayfield Ave., attended a birthday celebration in honor of Mr. Willet's mother in Redford Saturday evening.

Little Miss Marion Lee Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson, Mayfield Ave., celebrated her second birthday Saturday. Invited in to share the sandwiches, the ice cream and the beautiful birthday cake were several other two year old young ladies, accompanied by their mothers. Also two great-grandmothers, Mrs. Margaret Martin and Mrs. J. W. Ault. Marion became the owner of some lovely new dresses and pinafiores.

A stork shower was tendered Mrs. Norman Kauraneau, Mayfield Ave., Sunday evening. Guests participating were relatives and friends from Detroit.

Mrs. Arthur Ault spent Friday at the home of her mother-in-law in Detroit and there assisted in tendering a stork shower to her sister-in-law, another Mrs. Ault.

Miss Lora Ault and Miss Freda Ault made a call or two and stopped in Northville Wednesday afternoon.

Several West Point Park ladies attended the Macabees installation services in the High School on Middlebelt Friday evening. A few, including Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Callahan, of Hubbard Ave., took part in the ceremonies.

A theatre party, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Hutton, the Scoutmaster, was arranged for the Senior Girl Scouts at one of the downtown theatres Sunday afternoon. About a dozen local young ladies were in attendance.

Miss Laura Anne Hutton and Miss Shirley Ault have had their names transferred from the intermediate to the time has given illustrated mediate Scout roll to that of the senior group. These two girls are son School, appeared at the school freshmen in Farmington, High School.

Mrs. M. E. Ault, who has been visiting in the East and who expected to be home in time for her granddaughter, Marion Johnson's birthday, March 25th, was held up by a bus strike in Pittsburgh. The bus was also a threat of flood from the rivers joining at that point. However, late in the week the strike was settled and Mrs. Ault took the first outgoing bus, going direct to the home of a daughter, Mrs. Johnson Porter, in New London, O., where she will now remain for a week or two before returning home. These days there is much to discourage travel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jennings and daughter, Daria Mae, left Saturday for Toledo where they expected to meet Mrs. Jennings's brother, Private Smith, who was home for a brief furlough that will be the last he can enjoy for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult, of Shadydale Ave., left Thursday for Kansas in order to attend the funeral services Friday of Mrs. Schult's brother, Raymond Standish, who died last Wednesday. Mr. Standish had been ill for two years and leaves a wife and six children. The Schults planned to be gone over the weekend.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoagland, who moved from West Point Park to Pleasant City, Fla., last fall, have received news of the death of Mr. Hoagland's mother, a widow, near ninety years old, and for a time had resided on Mayfield Ave., West Point Park, from which she moved to the family farm in southern Indiana a few years ago.

Mr. Gilmore, who is connected with a group which works similar to the Glidens, and who from time to time has given illustrated talks on religious subjects in Pleasant City, appeared at the school

Wednesday of last week and presented a series of pictures on the Crucifixion, with descriptive explanations. Boys and girls were much impressed.

Dogs, as well as boys frequently get lost. While search was being made for the lost boy last Wednesday, a similar one was being conducted for "Biffie," a small pedigree dog belonging to Alice Jane Vance. Members of the Vance family traveled over the highways and kept telephone lines busy trying to locate the beloved pet, but seemed to make no progress. Finally, at near dusk, the weary little dog appeared at the Russell Ault home on Shadydale Avenue. He must have wandered far or been playing very hard because when called, he dragged himself into the house and lay dejectedly down. The young lady of the household carried him in her arms to the Vance home, where he was welcomed in true prodigal style.

Karen Grundy, who was ill with tonsillitis for two weeks, is now able to be out and around again but her sister, Shirley, is now ill.

and Mr. Grundy, the father, was sent a series of pictures on the Crucifixion, with descriptive explanations. Boys and girls were much impressed.

Leslie Bolyard, of Hubbard Ave., almost amputated a finger while at his work Friday. The injury is very painful. Mrs. Bolyard, his wife, is ill in bed.

Austin Ault, of Irving Ave., is confined to his bed with a serious illness and it was expected to be several weeks at least before he can take up any of his usual activities.

Stanley Schilling, of Pembroke Ave., who was ill all winter, shows no improvement.

The Larsons from Brightmoor were again visiting friends in the Folker Subdivision Sunday.
