Farmington Township
Mrs. H. A. McIntyre

Lemuel Irving of Nine Mile Road is in Tulsa, Oklahoma, where he was called by the death and burial of his uncle who has been ill for several months.

Little Miss Judith Ann Thornton of Edward Avenue enjoyed the company of several little friends with tea and cake, on Friday, March 31, to help celebrate her third birthday.

Pfc Donald McIntyre who has been stationed at the Flexible Gunnery Training School at the Laredo Army Air Field near Laredo, Texas, for the past year is spending his leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McIntyre on Farmington Road, and his sisters, Mrs. W. J. Banfield of Commerce, and Mrs. H. W. Thornton of Farmington.

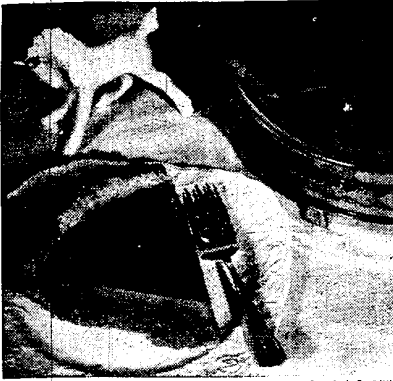

Pfc McIntyre has his Aviator Medal from Buckley Field in Colorado and Gunner's wings from Laredo and is assisting with the instructions of gunners at his base at present.

Mrs. Joseph Graham of Nine Mile Road, who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lemuel Irving for the past two months, has recovered her health and will soon return to her home.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Banfield entertained Mr. and Mrs. Brook of Milford, Mr. and Mrs. John Thuener and daughter, Dorothy, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. George Houts and daughter, Sandy Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Strelling, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and Children, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fifoot and family, and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McIntyre, in honor of Mrs. Banfield's brother, Pfc Donald McIntyre and Miss Joyce Schweigert of Flint, also Mr. Banfield's and Mrs. Fifoot's birthday anniversaries. The evening was spent with old time dancing and a co-operative supper with 28 guests all seated at the table to enjoy the friendly hour together again.

Mrs. Robert Tengman and children called at the McIntyre home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McIntyre and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Banfield and son, Mickey, of Commerce, attended the wedding and reception of their son and brother, Pfc Donald McIntyre and Miss Joyce Schweigert in Flint, Monday afternoon.

THIS WEEK AT YOUR LIBRARY

HOURS:
Wednesday—11:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Friday—6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
Saturday—2:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Again we have a few more replaced children's books in our library. They are as follows:

The Story of a Bad Boy, by Thomas Bailey Aldrich. This is a story of Tom Bailey who was not really a bad boy but a very human little boy. Here is a recounting of all the incidents that go to make up a boy's life. While a children's book, adults would be very well to read it and be reminded that they weren't the little salts they would like to have their children think they were.

Allie's Adventures in Wonderland by Lewis Carroll. A fairy story from the very first world, that will delight the fancy and imagination of all boys and girls.

Treasure Island by Robert Louis Stevenson. While this was written for children, over a period of many years it has continued to thrill all boys and girls from sixteen to sixty. Pirates, gold, seas, rough and calm, romance and high adventure for all come within the realm of Treasure Island.

Bible Stories, Every One Should Know—Rev. Jesse Lyman Hurlbut, D.D. The Bible is one of the two or three oldest books in the world, but unlike most of the ancient books, it is found not only in great libraries, but in almost every home of the civilized world; and it is not only studied by learned scholars, but read by the common people; and its many stories grasp and hold the attention of little children. Happy is that child who has heard over and over again, the Bible stories until they have become fixed in his mind and memory, to become the foundations of a noble life.

It is with the desire of aiding parents and teachers in telling these stories, and aiding children to understand them, also in the hope that they may be read in

ALEC TEMPLETON APPEARS IN DETROIT CONCERT

The American public knows Alec Templeton, who will play in Detroit on Saturday evening, April 15th, as a brilliant pianist and musical satirist. But he has another talent, equally important. He is a gifted composer, and a serious one, too.

Two of his works are familiar to American radio and musical audiences. "Rhapsody Harmonic" which he played for the first time with the Woman's Symphony Orchestra of Chicago, has been performed with the Detroit and Rochester orchestras. Bernard Hermann first conducted the "Concerto Lyrico" last summer with the CBS Symphony Orchestra. He wrote an orchestral fantasy called "Red Woods," after spending a vacation at the annual outing of the San Francisco Bohemian Club.

Several definite influences are apparent in his work. His admiration for the orchestral mastery of Ravel, for Bach, Beethoven and Rachmaninoff, is evident. Critics praise the distinctness of these voices, but add that there is little of Templeton himself yet.

As for Rachmaninoff, the late virtuoso and composer has been a musical idol of Templeton. When Nicholas Rubinstein died, Tchaikowsky wrote a trio to his memory; when Tchaikowsky died, Rachmaninoff wrote one for him; Templeton, continuing the tradition, is writing one for Rachmaninoff.

Alec Templeton will appear at the Masonic Auditorium on Saturday evening, April 15th.

HANDS BEGIN TO FLY
when the fleet moves in or it's payday in the Army

Then the boys rush to the telephone — a whole, eager bunch of them all at once — to call the folks back home.

Your casual Long Distance call at such a time could mean that some soldier or sailor would have to wait — or maybe not have time to get his call through at all.

Will you please help — by leaving 7 to 10 P. M. for the service men? It's especially important in these off-duty hours.
