STYLE SHOW GREATLY PLEASES THE AUDIENCE

On Thursday, April 13, the Home-making group 3, assisted by classes 1 and 2, presented their long-anticipated Fashion Show.

The show was given in two acts. Act 1 was in a dressing room, where the girls were shown correct posture, make-up, and clothes. Act 2 was in a broadcast studio, where several girls modeled everything from play clothes to bed-time togs. Models were Barbara Locker, Rhoda Brill, Donna Lee Rowland, Phyllis Walden, Marian Rubberg, Jeanette House, and Bette York. Marian Rowland acted as announcer.

Between acts Helen MacDonald and Pam Nordway sang. Peggy Dwyer tap-danced. Marguerite Wedin and Miss Gardner accompanied on the piano.

Very attractive programs were designed by Marian Rowland and colored by the girls. L.L.

ACTIVITIES OF CLASSES DIFFER GREATLY

Has anyone noticed? That conference room of Miss Dammon's has been turned into a studio. Some of our school artists have been working back there, and the results are very pleasing to the eye. Those biographies that were written by members of Miss Pavlovich's English class are very interesting. The list covers a wide range and includes people such as Irving Berlin, Mahatma Gandhi, and Adolf Hitler. These biographies are rather complete, because information has been gathered from numerous sources.

The competition Mr. Hutton has been stirring up in his first hour economics class is getting keen. Last week he had an all-girl forum, the girls being the five with the highest marks. He is planning to have another one in the future; this time the winners will be boys. He is trying to find out which group can present the best discussion, and everyone in the class is in suspense concerning the verdict. —Z.L.

F.H.S. DROPS FIRST MEET TO WAYNE

The Farmington high school track team lost its first meet at Wayne Wednesday, April 12, 59% to 44%. The Farmington squad looked very promising in this meet even though they didn't win and Coach Hutton has high hopes for them this year.

The F.H.S. trackmen came through with flying colors in the 220 yard dash, with Muhling first. Banghart, second and Schroeder, third, for a total of 9 points, and in the 330 yard dash with Norton first, getting first and second respectively for eight points. Farmington was low in the shot put, mile, and both high and low hurdles, but with some good practice on these the fellows should improve.

Following are the results of the meet and the events run off:

FAIRY TALE WORLD REVIVED IN THIRD GRADE

To be sure it does seem as though the Third graders went back to fairy-tale time, or it can be said that the story brought the characters of fairy land back to life.

Cinderella walked around the room laughing and smiling. Her famous prince was also there. The two unpleasant stepsisters made their presence known, too.

Besides the "Cinderella" personalities the well-known characters of "Brier Rose" haunted the place.

Could all this have been due to the fact that each and every one of the Third graders took part in the dramatization of both the "Brier Rose" and "Cinderella" fairy tales? Yes, that was it.

"It all started out as a class project, but interesting tales of it were drifting home to many mothers. This proved to be so intriguing that the Third graders were requested to give their dramatizations for the P.T.A. meeting on April 18.

The mothers were not the only ones who enjoyed the entertainment, for the children promised to let the rest of the grade school see their plays. —G.S.
