Farmington Socially Speaking

By KATHY ZISKA
GR. 4-7261

Mrs. Nancy Passfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Raymond came from out of town last Friday to spend the day and guest overnight. It happened to be Max Raymond's 73rd birthday and where better to spend it than with his daughter, son-in-law and two granddaughters.

LAST FRIDAY evening was the Science Fair in Dunckel High School and one of Max Raymond's granddaughters had a science exhibit entered.

It was a delightful birthday present for his granddaughter to get the top science award for her entry. Her entry was about the diet of vitamins, charting the conditions of four mice; one given no vitamin A, the second given no vitamin B and two mice with controlled vitamins. She charted the reactions of the mice and relations of the different vitamins.

Her exhibit will next go to the Science Fair Regionals at Cranbrook some time in March. I didn't have time to check it out, but there was word that Kathy Passfield may have been the first seventh grader to win the science award at Dunckel. I guess if you have talent and know how, you just don't have much need for women's lib, eh Kathy?

To top off the eventful birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Max Raymond left the next morning, as scheduled, for a Hawaiian holiday. John Passfield family was at the airport to see them off.

ST. FABIAN'S annual parish dance, held in the St. John's Armenian Church, was a sellout and tremendous success. It takes determination and a lot of work to come up with a party that's such a winner and a lot of success goes to party chairman Tom Gibney of Nottingham and assistants Don Mackrucher of Baytree and Ed Stanners of Colony Park Dr.

Each couple attending received a bottle of champagne and, with 226 couples attending, that takes a lot of champagne. To add to the festive mood, there was a flower arrangement at each table that was taken home by one of the lucky people at the table. Like frosting on a cake, it was a sit-down dinner with roast beef, chicken and dressing and all the trimmings. Even the music was perfect.

Some of the couples at the grand affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koss, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gibney, Mr. and Mrs. Fran Bosler, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Donohue, Mr. and Mrs. George Kupjak, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zott, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lonsberry, Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchell and Mrs. and Mrs. Tom Yesowich.

Also: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kitlas, Mr. and Mrs. William Babiarz, Mr. and Mrs. William Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. George Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sinatra, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Burke, Mr. and Mrs. James Wyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marberg, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Stanek, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Curme, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bellanger, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kenny and many more.

I WOULD LIKE to add my personal congratulations to Mrs. Faye Sills. Always knew she had a heart of gold, but now the Heart of Gold awards committee has let her know that it's true. She was one of the recipients of the Heart of Gold Award.

Keep up the good work, Faye and Phillip Sills. Remember, Phillip, that behind every good Heart of Gold recipient is a Heart of Gold helper.
