Steel Tongue
The almost boneless paichee fish of Brazil contributes more than its "meat." The "steel" tongue is dried and serves as a substitute for steel files, and it is also used as a grater in preparing farina from the cassava root.

Less Tomatoes
The civilian supply of canned tomatoes during the coming year will be about 20 per cent smaller than last year.

CLARENCEVILLE

Mrs. Mary Rutlia
The Scanlans of Dresden held a family party Tuesday evening in honor of their son-in-law, Leo Castilho, who was inducted into the armed forces on Friday. Leo's mother, Mrs. Everly, was also present.
The members of the "Jaslebs" entertained ten boys from the U.S.O. at the Scanlan home on Saturday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. William Laehn and daughter, Doris, of Eight Mile Road, attended the Laehn family reunion on Sunday at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Moskow on Cusick Lake near Roussau.
Doris Laehn, who is a member of the teaching staff of Harding School, Detroit, recently returned from a ten day trip to New York.
A round of family gatherings are being held while Private Hazen Nelson is home on furlough.
Ethel Pink spent the week end with Mary Himmelsbach of Farmington, at her summer home.
The Swarthout family went on a fishing trip over the week end. Mrs. Burges and children of Inkster are visiting relatives in Indiana.
Mr. and Mrs. Cook are the new folks who bought the Jenkins property on Colwell.
The Bauman family of Inkster entertained a group of relatives on Monday.
Couldn't help feeling proud of the military atmosphere lent the corner of Eight Mile and Grand River Sunday morning, with dismissal of United Church. Private Sam Prisk and Army Nurse Marian Shaw were in the group. Marian is training at Henry Ford Hospital.
Clarenceville was out en masse to attend the Legion Gala Days in Farmington over the weekend.
The Blue Star Mothers September birthday luncheon was held at MacCabe's Hall on Wednesday, with a good attendance.
The basement of the Rebecca Hall being built on Inkster Road, is fast nearing completion.
Members of last year's Senior's Class are going their several ways along the road of life, with the announcement that Thelma Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Evans of Lake Road, is entering Literature School at the University of Michigan. Carol Harbourn is entering school at Bay City to take a teaching course, and Joseph Prisk, son of Rev. and Mrs. Prisk of Jackson, is entering Pharmacy School at Wayne U. Jane Walton is starting nursing school in Cleveland.
Lt. Barbara Ryall spoke to her mother on Tuesday, her birthday, by telephone from Suisan, California.
Use of Cork
Only 5 per cent of the cork used in the United States is used as "bottle stoppers." Much of the cork is now used for cartridge plugs, bomb parts, insulations of planes and for life preservers and other army and navy needs.

Hours Changed At The Library

The Farmington City and Township Library, located in the Farmington Town Hall, will observe the beginning of Saturday, September 1. The library will be open from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and from 3:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. every Wednesday and Saturday, and on Friday it will be open from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. These new hours should serve the community well and give everyone the opportunity to visit the library at their convenience.
Mrs. Florence Leach, librarian, has announced that many new books have been purchased during the months of July and August, including some of the most popular books of the day.
Adults may find something to interest them among these new books: Great Sea Stories; Murder A Mile High; Escape the Night; Case of the Crooked Canister; Here to Heaven; Call It North Country; Presidential Agent; I Believe; D. A. Draws A Circle; Clue of the Forgotten Murder; Here is Alaska; Lost Island; Razor's Edge; Mallory of the Royal Mounted; Tarawa; A Story of Battle; Ten Years in Japan; U.S. War Aims; Native's Return; Walk in the Sun; Anna and the King of Siam; America Unlimited; Time for Decision; Bell for Adam; Endure No Longer; Miss Solari Deals With Death; Fighting Americans of Today and Variety of Weapons.
New juvenile books at the library include Johnny Tremaine; Land of William of Orange; Wind in the Willows; Knock at the Door; Kitty Come Down; Seven Diving Ducks; When the New Year Came in March; Child of Colombia; Freddie the Detective; Lute; Three New Nicodemus books; They All Saw It; Agoing to the Westward; Some Follow the Sea; Dolly Madison; Quaker Girl; Smoky Ridge; Island on the Beach; Tommy and His Dog; Harry; Mystery at East Hatchett; Canthook Country; Give a Man a Horse; White Stag; Small Rain; Last Cruise of the Jeannette; Two Children of Brazil and Spanin Canoe.

TOWN HALL ANNOUNCES FALL PROGRAM

Two nationally known specialists in science and medicine, and a noted Chinese Aviatrix have joined celebrities appearing at Detroit Town Hall in the Fisher Theatre this season.
The Series, featuring 20 Wednesday mornings of lectures, music and entertainment, opens Oct. 11 with Donald Dickson, opera, radio and stage star. Next, Guthrie McClintic, distinguished producer husband of Katherine Cornell, will speak Oct. 18 on the "Theatre."
Oct. 25, David Dietz, science editor of Scripps Howard newspapers, discusses "Science and the Future," a subject embracing advances in medicine, wartime surgical and psychiatric discoveries, and postwar mechanical marvels for the home.
"Your Glands and What They Do To You" is the fascinating title of Dr. James H. Hutton, practicing Chicago physician, author of books on endocrinology and specialist for 25 years in the study of ductless glands.
Two new attractions announced by Kathleen Snow Stringer, Town Hall Director, are Lee Ya-Ching, "China's First Lady of the Air," who describes "Chinese Youth and Aviation," and Maurice Hindus, foremost authority on Russia who tells "What I Saw in Russia."
Other '44-45 season celebrities are Percy Grainger, famous pianist, playing his own compositions; Frank Gervasi and "Red" Mueller, area war correspondents; H. Napier Moore, Canadian publisher; Sigrid Schultz, formerly Berlin Bureau Director of the Chicago Tribune; Dr. George Crane, psychologist, "Horse Sense in Raising Children;" Margaret Bourke White, noted camera reporter of battle areas; Bilde Moody, columnist, author of "Low Down in Washington;" Major Peter Rainier of Montgomery's Staff who talks on the Eighth Army; Osa Johnson, famous explorer with pictures of the Solomon; Colin Mackenzie, Merchant Marine hero; Robert Bell, former United Press Tokyo correspondent, and Devi Dja and her Ball-Java dancers, publicized by Life Magazine and other periodicals.
For further information, call Cherry 5617, Detroit Town Hall, 220, Hotel Statler, Detroit 31, Michigan.

Unwarming Hogs
The average warmy pig, if it lives, requires one-fifth more feed to reach the same weight as an unfed one. Since about half of the pigs in America are said to be infested, elimination of internal parasites would save great quantities of feed.
