

Charles Diamond, Jr., left November 29 for army service and is stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina in the Field Artillery Communications.

Cut Raisins
When cutting raisins for cookies and cakes use your shears. Dip the scissors blades in flour and the raisins won't stick to the blades.

Service Notes

Flight Officer Ralph J. Anlen returned to Denning, New Mexico, after visiting his parents.

John K. Scanlan, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Scanlan of 29215 Dresden, has entered the Army, and is now at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Raymond P. Lardie graduated from the Naval Air Technical Training Center located at Memphis, Tennessee.

While at Memphis the Bluejacket attended the aviation radio school for which his recruit training aptitude tests showed he was best suited. He will now be transferred to Gunners School and upon graduation may be qualified as an Aircrewman, which will entitle him to wear the silver wings of the Aircrewman.

Leo Hupert, F 2/c, has recently been home on a nine day furlough which he spent with his parents and family. He attended the Farmington High School J-Hop, and with his family, on Thanksgiving Day was the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Hupert in Detroit.

Corporal Donald J. Heuser of 29810 Robinson Avenue has just returned from the European Theater of Operations, and is at present attending a 30-day leave with his parents. Cpl. Heuser has had duty in Algeria, Italy, and was part of the invasion forces that landed in Southern France on August 15 of this year.

George W. Devroy has moved from Lakeland, Florida, and is now stationed at Gunter Field, Alabama.

Word has been received from Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Ronald Young who are now stationed in Spokane, Washington, where they had the pleasure of celebrating their little son's first birthday. Mrs. Young is well known in Farmington as Leona Tamm.

A/C Frank Brown is now attending Advanced Bombardier School at Childress, Texas.
