Theater programs that may be read in the dark are a possibility in postwar days; either the paper or the ink will contain phosphorescent pigments.

TRACK TROPHY WON AT YPSILANTI

Track, a much neglected sport by the readers of Farmington High, went into high gear last Friday. The boys traveled to Ypsilanti to compete for the League title. On a fast track and in excellent weather they had no trouble at all insuring another trophy for the school's collection.

The boys worked hard and many unexpected points were gained. Bob McLean was credited with 5 1/2 points; Knight followed with 1 1/2. Farmington took six first places.

An unexpected amount of points were gained in the 880 when Alvin Garchow and Bud Locker tied for second. Harry Taddeo saved the day in the relay when he picked up our lost ground.

The low and high hurdles were won by McLean and Warner of Farmington respectively. Freshman Brodel came through with a beautiful sprint to win the mile for Farmington. Bob Chesley threw 3' 6" in shot put to take first. Morone placing third. Knight tied with Watson from Milford for a first in pole vault.

The final totals gave Farmington 67 1/2 points; Walled Lake 24 1/2 and Milford 35.

With only Knight and Locker leaving this year, the prospect for track next year looks very rocky. —T.R.

FOREMOST STUDENTS RECEIVE AWARDS

Outstanding accomplishments in specialized fields were recognized by instructors at an assembly in F.H.S. gymnasium on May 17. Miss Danuon presented the Journalism award to Mary Taddeo, best "newspaperman" in this department. Dick Sills received the Manual Arts award from Mr. Snell; Bud Locker was chosen for the Mathematics certificate, which was presented by Mr. Oliver, and Miss Rich, Homemaking instructor, presented Marlon Rowland with the award in that field.

Lois Goers, Bud Locker, Velma Goers, and Dick Martindale were given the American Legion Award by Mr. James Nourjian. Lois also received the award for the Band member "who will be most missed." Next Miss Gardner presented Clara Roberts with the vocal music award.

Letters in athletics were given by Mr. Hutton. The Cheer Leaders letters were distributed by Miss Hoeflin. The First and Second Band were given letters by Mr. Smith. —L.M.

SENIORS SWINGOUT IN IMPRESSIVE EXERCISES

The Class of '45 presented the second annual Senior Swingout Friday afternoon at a school assembly.

During a dramatic entrance the F.H.S. Band played "Pomp and Circumstance" as the seniors, robed in their dark blue caps and gowns, marched to their seats in front of the stage.

The Glee Club then sang "Deep in My Heart."

Following this music, Mary Taddeo, as a departing senior, gave the undergraduates a bit of worthwhile advice.

These seniors participated in a skit, which depicted the outstanding activities of the class in their Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior years: Bud Aschodt, Charles Brown, Bill Monaghan, Priscilla Griffin, Al McMurdy, Joyce Lussendun, Norma Howe, Mildred McKay. It was very cleverly done and many memories came flooding back.

The band's "Officer of the Day" and "American Patrol," played as a salute to the servicemen, was followed by the seniors' tribute. The curtains opened on an impressive V formation, made up of seniors dressed to represent men and women from different walks of life and from the various Armed Forces.

Next on the program was Concocta Orofino, who presented gifts to Mr. Oliver, Miss Pavlovich, and Miss Hoeflin, advisers, and Mr. Bell, our ever-helpful maintenance man.

Mr. Oliver, in turn presented the Keith Johnson Memorial Award to Sae Goodrich, after which the Glee Club sang "Alma Mater."

Following this, Milton Knight, senior president, presented the traditional gavel, symbol of authority, to Bob McLean, junior president.

The last, but most impressive, part of the Swingout, was the singing of the F.H.S. "Fight Song" by the seniors with the Juniors picking up the final chorus, thus symbolically accepting the leadership of the student body.

If the Junior Class carries on with a Senior Swingout next year, the practice will be established as tradition. —P.M.E.

BAPTIST CHURCH ENTERTAINS SENIOR CLASS

The class of '45 and the faculty were honored by the Baptist Church Monday evening, May 28, when they were guests at a banquet served in the church dining room.

The dinner and the program were a real surprise. Betty Moore, senior, was the toastmaster, introducing Mrs. John Lewis and Bud Locker, who played a violin duet. Mrs. Eleanor Scharchburg, who sang "The Lord is My Shepherd," introduced the speaker of the evening, and Mr. Hostetter, who gave the address.

This senior staff wishes to add a word of appreciation to the church for its thoughtfulness this year and every year in entertaining the graduates. The planning alone—say nothing about actually getting and preparing the meal—was a real undertaking.

FOR AULD LANG SYNE

The "Alma" party, sponsored by the Freshmen, on Saturday night, June 2, from 8 to 11:30 o'clock in the gym, will be the last party of the year.

The Freshies, who appreciated the Get-Acquainted party sponsored by the seniors last fall, are hoping for a good turnout. They are planning interesting decorations, a few surprises, skits, music, "n' everything. Refreshments will be of an entirely different nature.

We'll be seeing you—won't we? Everyone is invited you know.

The HEROES of this and Other Wars Remind Us to Buy MORE BONDS.. NOW

In honoring our fighting heroes of this and other wars we can't help but be reminded of the sacrifices they made that we might enjoy life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. It's our solemn obligation to them, and to our children who will benefit most by Victory and Peace, to buy all the Bonds we can, from this day forward, until our enemies are defeated and Peace is restored.

Surely we could not pay them a more fitting tribute.
