"How I used to dread washday! And all the time I didn't need to, for the all-electric laundry was proving its worth in thousands of homes. Then, just before the war I bought an all-electric faundry. And ever since, washday has been so simple there is nothing to it!

"To think of the time-consuming, wearying work I used to To think of the time-consuming, wearying work I used to do that was unnecessary! There was the drudgery of handling the clothes through soaking, washing, rinsing and wringing out, then the jobs of hanging them out to dry, and gathering them in and ironing the lot by hand. And the buttons that were torn off . . . and broken . . and lost! Well, those days are gone forever. Now I simply put the clothes in the washer, and go on about my business while the washer goes on about its business. Later I transfer the damp-dry clothes to the dryer-the only time I touch wetness-and in about 15 minutes they're ready for quick handling on the automatic ironer. My soapy-handed friends are awaiting the day-not so far off now, I hearwhen they, too, will no longer dread washday."
