Edward H. Shaffer, Oct. 27

Now with the boys off at school, we are beginning to enter the fall and a campaign is on for enlistment of new members in the VFW as well as re-enrollment of the old members. Anyone with overseas service in any conflict of this country of ours, may enroll in the Farmington Post No. 4033. Remember next year is election year for the House of Representatives, and we can't get representation unless we have strong organization.
Just see any of the present members. I am very proud to announce that we now have over one hundred members, and want to make it two hundred next year.

William J. Tarr, Commander of Department of Michigan, V.F.W., has announced that a very attractive special award card will be presented to each comrade who remits his 1946 dues on or before year. Don't let us "anath" the commander's attempt to put Michigan over the top.

The National Convention is being held in Chicago this week, October 2, 3 and 4. It is regrettable that none of the local post were able to go, but in another year it will be different.

The V.F.W. Post is planning a fall dance to be held next Saturday evening, October 13, at the High School Gymnasium. Let's everyone get out, and have a really grand party.

The meeting will be at the Town Hall on October 17, at 8:00 p.m. Come and bring an overseas buddy with you.

Let's Food Value
Shredded vegetables may lose more food value in cooking than whole ones do. Cut the vegetables into as large pieces as are practical to get them done.

CLARENCEVILLE (By Mrs. Axel Rutlis)

Don't forget the Parent-Teacher reception; Friday night at 7:30 p.m. at the high school. There will be free entertainment and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gallasher have moved into their new home on Rensselaer and their son, Ralph, and his family have returned to the community to reside in the former residence of their parents on Oaklawn.

Mrs. Adda Holmes, mother of George Holmes of St. Francis, passed away on Friday, after a period during which she was be-tridder following a fall when she fractured her hip some weeks ago.

Mrs. Holmes, a native Detroiter, had reached the age of 83 years, and had been in good health previously.

turned from her sojourn in northeast Michigan.

Mrs. Harvey Dault, Rosemary and Delores Butler attended the opening of "The Student Prince" at the Cass Theatre.

Been wondering how many of us thought when the gasoline strike was called that in the long run it would affect our little poe-ple, even our smallest citizens, the school children, with the closing of the schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Monette returned on Saturday from a stay in the north country during the height of his fever season.

Mr. David Ryall is up and about following a sick spell.
