Oakland YW Offers Easter Workshops

The Oakland Branch YWCA is offering a variety of workshops related to the Easter holidays. Reservations may be made at the YWCA, 839 S. Crooks Road, Clawson. A three-part workshop on making Easter candles will begin Thursday, March 9. Mrs. Bertha Trost of Troy will show the basics of candle making from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Mrs. Ella Hafferkamp of Royal Oak will conduct a sewing class from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., Friday, March 10. In it, she will show how to make a man's tailored jacket, using the newest techniques.

Mrs. Jean Goldner of Bloomfield Hills will demonstrate the latest in gift-wrapping ideas on Wednesday, March 22, from 1 to 3 p.m., and how to make beaded eggs Friday, March 24, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

A special Easter workshop for boys and girls in grades one to six will be offered from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 noon on Saturday, March 25. Children will design and make their own Easter baskets and decorate eggs.

She's A Helper For Easter Bunny
By MARGARET MILLER
Women's Editor

When the Easter Bunny comes hopping into town, one lady who really will be ready is Mrs. Pauline Olm of Redford Township.

MRS. PAULINE OLM decorates a sugar egg with squiggles of frosting.

In fact, this creator of Easter goodies is showing others how to get ready in daily demonstrations this week in the Kitchen Glamor store at 2670 Grand River, between Inkster and Beech Daly, Redford Township.

Each day this week at 9:30 a.m., 11 a.m. and 1 p.m., Mrs. Olm demonstrates the steps necessary to make cakes that look like bunnies, lambs or hens, fancy eggs with white or pastel chocolate on the outside and fruit and nuts inside, and intricate sugar eggs with little scenes inside.

Then the two halves were fastened together with royal frosting serving as glue and decorated on the outside, again with royal frosting.

MRS. OLM, in her demonstrations, also shows how she makes her cakes with frosting feathers that look real, and shimmery suckers in Easter shapes.

A simple way of making fancy cookies is another part of the demonstration. Mrs. Olm uses pink and white dough and cuts both into large round cookies with a bunny, chick or other seasonal design

MRS. OLM, who has been teaching cake decorating and making of all sorts of candies since 1954, now has adult education classes at Redwood Union High School and Farmington Junior High as well as working at Kitchen Glamor. She ran through a pre-demonstration on making the sugar eggs.

WHICH CAME FIRST, the chicken or the egg? It doesn't really matter, because both are part of Mrs. Pauline Olm's Easter goodies demonstration. (Observer photo by Bob Woodring)
