BAPTIST CHURCH APPLIES FOR SCOUT TROOP

The Women's Mission Union will meet at the church at 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, October 25, for White Cross. There will be a lock lunch at noon. A very interesting program is scheduled for the afternoon. Mrs. R. Schinck is the leader and the subject of her discussion will be "The Spirit Kindles the Flame of Sacrifice."

On Monday evening, October 22, the Women's Fellowship Class of the Sunday School has been invited to be the guests of the pastor at the parsonage. A social time has been planned and the class will be organized.

In view of the need for emphasis in boys' work and in keeping with the Boy Scout program in Protestant Churches, the Farmington Baptist Church, voted on Sunday evening, October 14, to make application for a Scout Troop sponsored by the Church.

The sponsoring committee will consist of Charles Rousseau, Stanley Smith and Russell Banks. William Barnum was solicited for local scout leader. His assistants are to be appointed at a later date.

Happy Birthday, Comrades John B. Duffino Oct. 18 Kenneth P. Mears, Oct. 17 Edward H. Shafer, Oct. 23

Now that the dance is over, it will only be a short time before another will be forthcoming. The chairman of the dance committee, Tom Smith, and his committee are to be highly commended for their hard work. James Tolman was married to Mary Tamm last Friday evening at the Salem Evangelical Church. It was a fine affair and James is happy in his honeymoon at the present time. Dues for next year can be paid at the present time. A campaign for new members is also going on. The Farmington Post will take their colors to the 5th District Fair, Nov. 7 at Pontiac the 28th of October. An all day parade is planned to follow the parade. The next meeting will be November 7 at 8:00 p.m. in the town hall.

THERE'S TIME YET TO ENTER PLANE CONTEST

The boys of Farmington are enthusiastically responding to the call for entries in the Model Airplane Contest, being sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Farmington.

All boys eighteen years of age or under, are cordially invited to take part in this contest which will be held Sunday afternoon, October 28, at 2:30 p.m. on the grounds of the City Park.

At this time, boys have entered models in the contest. There is still time to enter, and those wishing to secure entry blanks may get them from either Lloyd Smith or V. O. Bates at the school.

I wish to extend my sincere thanks for the many cards, gifts, flowers and kind offerings of help during my recent operation and illness.

Mrs. Margaret Westphal

The family of Staff Sgt. James L. Rice wishes to thank their friends and the kindness shown during their recent bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Lapham

I wish to thank the person who found my sugar pump and returned them to the board.

Mrs. Samuel Turner

Mrs. Pauline Elmstrong wishes to thank her friends and neighbors for their kindness and generosity at the time of the death of her brother, Charles Schrage.

Accident Victims
Some 17,000 farm dwellers are killed in accidents yearly in this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Kahrl and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fendt were home for the week-end. He has been pledged to Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

NOVI NEWS

By Mrs. George Waite

Mrs. Mae Atkinson and Mrs. Irene Starnes are attending the Rehearsal Assembly as delegates, held in Grand Rapids this week.

Bob Cotter of Grand River is seriously ill at his home.

Miss Mary Deland and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Durfee and daughter of Detroit accompanied Fred Durfee and daughter, Genevieve, to visit at the Glen Smiths near Sandusky.

Mrs. S. R. Marks of Cornum spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. Maggie Waite.

The supper and auction given by the Rehearsal and Oddfellows is reported as a big success, with this writing full details are not available.

Mrs. Frank Tamm spent a couple of days this past week at Chatham, Canada.

George Hunt of Grand River, who had a serious operation at Harper Hospital is reported as being as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ramsey and two children have moved to their home in Pontiac since Mr. Ramsey received his discharge from the Ford Brooks, during the time Mr. Ramsey was in service.

By the way, watch us grow. Another gift shop is coming to town. Watch for the opening announcement.

Public Invited To Recital

The public is cordially invited to attend a recital given by the students of Mrs. William P. Lancaster, on Friday evening, October 19, at 7:30 p.m. at the Methodist Sunday School rooms.

The recital will feature short poems, readings, monologues and skits.

Charles Larson, who is attending Michigan State College, was home for the week-end. He has been pledged to Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.
