IKE a lot of farmers I know, my erosion control program has suffered during the war years through lack of help. I've got to do something about that!

sometining about that!

"How do Victory Bonds fit into a farm erosion control program? Of course I've got the money new without dipping into my Bonds, but say current income in some future year doesn't leave me enough ready-cash to do the job ... will erosion on my farm wait for me to get the money?

"You bet it won"!

ior me to get the money?

"You bet it won't! And that's one of the things a reserve fund of Victory Bonds will do for me—insure a backlog to take cure of emergencies of all sorts.

"And I'm not forgetting, either, that my reserve of Victory "E". Bonds will be drawing good interest all the time—at maturity those bonds will pay off $4 for every $3 I put in today!"

Are Wanted Now

Eggs are wanted now and it is more profitable to get your flock to produce now rather than later on when the sup-ply will be much greater and the demand less.

Cull your flock of pullets and feed DELIGHT or LARRO Poultry Feeds in a good house and you ought to make some profit.
